Korina Miller Road trips have been an essential life ingredient since Korina was a small child growing up on Vancouver Island. While her friends were darting off to Hawaii and Florida, Korina's parents were packing the car and taking her on month-long journeys across Canada and up and down the Pacific Coast, from Alaska to Mexico. Korina has since traveled to more than three dozen countries, writing over two dozen Lonely Planet titles en route. She still includes road trips whenever she can, exploring India on the back of a motorbike, cruising through Sicilian villages and zipping down Japanese motorways.

My Favorite Trip 29 Vancouver Island's Remote North for its wild beaches, giant trees and roaming bears.

Brendan Sainsbury UK-born Brendan lives in White Rock, BC, 1 mile from the 49th parallel. The San Juan Islands and Olympic Mountains beckon from his kitchen window. He has been writing about the region for Lonely Planet since 2007 with books on the Pacific Northwest and the USA. He once ran 100 miles nonstop across the Cascade Mountains in an esoteric race. For finishing he received a rock with the words 'Plain 100' painted on it. It is one of his most prized possessions.

My Favorite Trip 6 Cascade Drive for the opportunities it offers to jump out of the car and sample some short but epic hikes.

OUR WRITERS

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Melbourne, London and Oakland, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Mariella Krause Mariella loves a good road trip, and feels lucky to live just six hours south of the Oregon border (especially now that she knows all the best places to go). Researching this book was her second major tour through the Pacific Northwest, having traveled through Washington state for the first edition. This is her eighth title for Lonely Planet.

My Favorite Trip 13 Highway 101 Oregon Coast for the laid-back pace and the amazing hikes that reward you with ocean views.

Celeste Brash Locals have a hard time believing it, but the beauty of the Pacific Northwest is what coaxed Celeste back to the US after 15 years in Tahiti. She was thrilled to explore and imbibe the treasures of her new backyard for this book and to get in touch with her cowboy and Indian roots. Up until now her award-winning travel articles and stories, which have appeared in publications such as Travelers' Tales, LA Times and Islands magazine, have focused on Southeast Asia and the South Pacific.

My Favorite Trip 16 Columbia River Gorge & Mt Hood because of its ever-changing spectacular scenery.
