WRITER THANKS

Carolyn McCarthy

I am very indebted to the many locals, experts and travelers who shared their version of paradise. Ignacio and Judit were Caribbean dream captains. For assistance in the Darién, I'm indebted to Segundo Sugasti, Beatriz Schmidt and Maija Meri. Thanks to Sandra JElea for her hospitality. Abrazos to the Bethels, Catherine, Dave and Ellen for their exceptional company. Next time, el Camino Real. Hasta la proxima!

Steve Fallon

Muchas gracias to those who offered assistance, ideas and/or hospitality along the way, especially to my ATV-cruising partner, Carla Rankin, of Bocas del Toro town. Other helpful folk I met along the way included Juan José Calvache in Panama City; Loes Roos and Kees Groenendijk on Isla de Coiba and the Veraguas Sunset Coast; Alberto Young Lim in El Valle; Jane Walker and Barry Robbins in Boquete; and Brian and Amy Wilcox on Isla San Cristóbal. Thanks to co-writer Carolyn McCarthy for all the right contacts and to editor Bailey Johnson, who got me out of a mess more than once. My great love goes to my partner, Michael Rothschild, who can't believe I'm still alive after my encounter with that green-and-black poison-dart frog.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Carolyn McCarthy

Author of more than 30 travel guides, Carolyn McCarthy has been writing about the Americas since 1998. For this visit she rode dugout canoes in lawn chairs, saw hundreds of marine turtles hatching and spent hours in Panama City traffic. She also drank the water. This is her third time writing the Panama guide. Her work has also appeared in BBC Magazine, National Geographic, Boston Globe, Outside and other publications.

Steve Fallon

Born in the USA, Steve traveled to Latin America as a youngster. Somehow the middle bit, especially Panama, remained terra incognita to him beyond hats and a canal until Lonely Planet sent him packing. And what discoveries he made: hummingbirds' nests, cobalt-blue and scarlet frogs, a spider that spins a golden web. Then there was the coffee, the chocolate, the orchids, the beaches, the corals... He's said it once and he'll say it again: Panama, who knew?
