AUTHOR THANKS

Lindsay Brown

Thanks to Jenny Wal at PNG Highlands Adventures and to Raphael (Siwi) Kogun for all his expertise and insights into PNG, and for staying cool and saving the day near Mendi. Thanks also to Mawi Maine, Chris Kogun and Phillip Gonapa. Thomas Tayape in Tari, Pym and Elizabeth Mamindi in Mt Hagan, Jackson Pinia in Kokopo, Shaun and Shannon at Nusa Island Retreat and Tony Pukuntap in New Ireland. Thanks to fellow writers Anna Kaminski and Jean-Bernard Carillet, and to Jenny Fegent.

Jean-Bernard Carillet

Heaps of thanks to the editorial and cartography teams at Lonely Planet for their great work. Coordinating author Lindsay Brown deserves a grand merci for his support, as does destination editor Tasmin Waby for her guidance. In the Sols, a special mention goes to Kerrie, Chris, Serah, Donaldson, Bob, Lisa and Pam, who went out of their way to help me. And finally, once again a gros bisou to Christine, who supported me.

Anna Kaminski

I would like to thank Tasmin for entrusting me with research of the most fascinating country I've ever covered; my fellow scribes, Lindsay and JB; and everyone who's helped me along the way. In particular, Nick and Jared – my Moresby angels; Paul Barker for his incomparable knowledge of PNG; Chris and Susan for the Sepik trip; Modakula, Warren, Sharon, Cathy, Jim and Delsie in Alotau; Gum in Kiriwina; Kayleigh at Nuli Sapi; Kipa and Gregory en route from Aitape to Wewak; my rescuer in Popondetta; Nicolas for sharing his knowledge and books; and Joe the driver in Moresby.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Dublin, Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Lindsay Brown

Morobe & Madang Provinces, The Highlands, Island Provinces As a travel writer and photographer, Lindsay relished the opportunity to trek up Mt Wilhelm, spot birds of paradise on the slopes of Mt Hagen and photograph the spectacular dancers at the Goroka Show – surely one of the greatest shows on earth. Travelling to Madang and the island provinces provided the perfect opportunity for this ex-marine biologist to dust off the diving qualifications and get reacquainted with the underwater world. Lindsay also wrote Welcome to PNG & Solomon Islands, Top 15 Experiences, Need to Know, If You Like, Month by Month, Itineraries, Kokoda Track, Regions at a Glance, PNG Today, History, Directory and Transport.

Jean-Bernard Carillet

Solomon Islands Paris-based journalist and photographer Jean-Bernard is a die-hard island-lover and diving instructor. He has clocked up numerous trips to the South Pacific, including five assignments to the Solomon Islands. On this research gig, his favourite experiences included diving the WWII wrecks off Tulagi, spending a day in Saeraghi, exploring Marovo Lagoon on a dinghy and visiting Gwaunaru'u with a local chief. Jean-Bernard has contributed to many Lonely Planet titles, in French and in English. He also writes for travel and dive magazines, and wrote the Diving chapter for this guide.

Anna Kaminski

Port Moresby, Central, Oro & Milne Bay Provinces, The Sepik Anna has dreamed of Papua ever since her history teacher showed her class slides of the penis-gourd-wearing villagers when she was 12 years old, and had an extensive knowledge of PNG history and indigenous culture before she set foot there. PNG surpassed all her expectations. During this research trip, she did an expedition down the Sepik, met a magician who makes rain in the Trobriand Islands, explored gritty Moresby and island-hopped in Milne Bay. Anna also wrote First Time in PNG and People of PNG. She tweets at @ACKaminski.

Contributing Authors

Tim Flannery is a naturalist, ecologist, environmental activist, author and Australian of the year in 2007. He has been director of the South Australian Museum, adjunct professor at Macquarie University and is currently a professorial fellow at Melbourne University and chair of the Climate Council.

Peter FitzSimons is a journalist, former Australian rugby player and author of Kokoda.
