AUTHOR THANKS

Regis St Louis

Big thanks to the many Papuans, travellers and expats who helped along the way.

Thanks to Rowan McKinnon and my hard-working co-authors for helpful advice and stellar work on previous editions. Other thanks go to Grace and family at Kokoda, Laurens in Buka, Josephine in Arawa, Ralph in Kokopau, Gretta in Alotau, Sean and staff at Nusa, Clem on Tunung Island, Solwara Meri, the paramount chief and friends on the Trobriands, the fantastic villagers at Tumari and Horia Diaconescu for Bougainville tips. Thanks also to my wife Cassandra and daughters Magdalena and Genevieve for their support.

Jean-Bernard Carillet

Heaps of thanks to the South Pacific team at Lonely Planet, especially Maryanne and Errol, for their trust, and to the editorial and cartography teams. Coordinating author Regis gets the thumbs up for his support, and Dean is, as always, a great co-author. In the Sollies, special thanks to Kerrie, Danny, Richard, Chris, Freda, Roland (who helped me when I was stuck in Gizo), Sue, Don, Allen and Serah. On the homefront, well-deserved bisous to my daughter, Eva, and Christine, who are always supportive.

Dean Starnes

PNG isn't the kind of country where you can spend months on the road without help. Tenkyu tru to all the people who pointed me in the right direction, especially Danielle Vincent, Andy Philip, Horia Diaconescu, my fellow authors and the hard work by the team at Lonely Planet. Thanks too to my parents, Julie and Alan Starnes, and my nambawan meri, Debbie, for holding down, fixing up and paying the bills for the fort in my absence.
