SEND US YOUR FEEDBACK

We love to hear from travellers – your comments keep us on our toes and help make our books better. Our well-travelled team reads every word on what you loved or loathed about this book. Although we cannot reply individually to your submissions, we always guarantee that your feedback goes straight to the appropriate authors, in time for the next edition. Each person who sends us information is thanked in the next edition – the most useful submissions are rewarded with a selection of digital PDF chapters.

Visit lonelyplanet.com/contact to submit your updates and suggestions or to ask for help. Our award-winning website also features inspirational travel stories, news and discussions.

Note: We may edit, reproduce and incorporate your comments in Lonely Planet products such as guidebooks, websites and digital products, so let us know if you don't want your comments reproduced or your name acknowledged. For a copy of our privacy policy visit lonelyplanet.com/privacy.

AUTHORS' THANKS

Mark Baker

I would like to thank the many people who took me under their wing along the way, with a special mention for Olga Brzezińska, Magdalena Krakowska and Anna Czerwinska.

Marc Di Duca

Huge thanks go to parents-in-law Mykola and Vira for looking after the boys while I was away, and to my wife Tanya for holding the fort. Also much gratitude goes to the staff at tourist offices across the region but in particular those in Gdańsk, Świnoujście, Sopot, Olsztyn and Grudziądz.

Tim Richards

My intricate journey through forests and cities was eased by the good nature of the Polish people, who cheerfully answered questions and endured my imperfect command of their language. Thanks in particular to the staff of local tourist offices, who were always helpful. Gratitude also to Poland's rail companies, whose trains took me all over the place (and were quite punctual). Thanks too to those restaurants who were happy to tinker with Polish classics to meet my new-found vegetarianism. Dziękuję!

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Mark Baker

Kraków, Małopolska, Carpathian Mountains Prague-based journalist and freelance writer Mark Baker first visited Poland as a student in the mid-1980s while the country was still part of the Eastern bloc and has returned many times over the years. He has worked as a writer and editor for the Economist Group, Bloomberg News and Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty. In addition to contributing to the Lonely Planet guide to Poland and writing Lonely Planet's pocket guide to Kraków, he's the author of Lonely Planet guides to Prague & the Czech Republic, Romania & Bulgaria, Slovenia and the Baltic countries. Mark also wrote the Planning and Survival sections of this book.

Marc Di Duca

Gdańsk & Pomerania, Warmia & Masuria Marc has been criss-crossing the post-Communist world for the past quarter of a century, the last decade as a full-time travel writer. The author of several guides to Poland, the country's north is one of his favourite corners of Eastern Europe. When not stalking Copernicus across the white sand of the Baltic, packing on pounds with cheesecake and Polish pizza and attempting to ask for railway tickets to Szczecin, Marc lives between Kent and West Bohemia with his wife, Tanya, and two sons.

Tim Richards

Warsaw, Mazovia & Podlasie, Silesia, Wielkopolska Tim taught English in Kraków in the 1990s, and was fascinated by Poland's post-communist transition. He's returned repeatedly for Lonely Planet, deepening his relationship with this beautiful, complex country. In 2011 Tim released a Kindle ebook collecting his media articles about Poland, We Have Here the Homicide. When not on the road for Lonely Planet, Tim is a freelance journalist in Melbourne, Australia, writing about travel and the arts. You can find his blog and social media contacts at www.iwriter.com.au.
