OUR READERS

Many thanks to the travellers who used the last edition and wrote to us with helpful hints, useful advice and interesting anecdotes: Isabelle Anderson, Reiter Angela, Dominique Boin, Urshla & Nelson Duarte, Veronica Graham, Jean Luc Le Formal, Keith Lofstrom, Cary Marie-Laurence, David Nicol, Chantal Palmer, Andy Wilson.

AUTHOR THANKS

Alexis Averbuck

Boundless thanks to Amy, Rod, Lola and Romy for making Marseille always feel like home to me. Life on the road wouldn't be nearly so wonderful without the kindness of strangers, so many thanks to the countless individuals who eased my trip and shared their tips. Then, to my trusty copilot, Ryan Ver Berkmoes: what a peachy treat to share springtime in Provence. And finally, thanks to Kate, Nicola and Oilly for being such a super team.

Oliver Berry

Thanks to all the people who provided special help while I was out on the road: Jean-Marie and Yvette Duchamp, Gabriel Boucher, Marcel Allard, Alexandre Berri, Theo Girard and Susie and Gracie Berry. Biggest thanks as always go to fellow authors Nicola Williams and Alexis Averbuck for all their help, contributions and sage advice, and to editor Kate Morgan for giving me the opportunity to revisit one of my favourite corners of France.

Nicola Williams

Having written the 1st edition of this book in 1998, it was with immense joy that I retraced my footsteps for this 8th edition – this time with three intrepid children in tow. Un grand merci Niko, Mischa et Kaya (und Christa!). Otherwise, sincere thanks to Eva Fournial (Mougins), Alain Corroyer (Nice), Richard Auray (Courmes) and Clare Bouvier (Antibes) for insider tips and recommendations. At home, thanks to husband Matthias Lufkens for his joie de vivre, love of travel and gracious tolerance of a temperamental workaholic wife.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Alexis Averbeck

St-Tropez to Toulon, Marseille to Aix-en-Provence, Arles & the Camargue, Avignon & Around Alexis Averbeck first came to Provence when she was four and now visits every chance she gets. Whether careening through hilltop villages in the Haut-Var, exploring art and antiquities in Arles, or browsing markets in the Dordogne (she also contributes to the France book), she immerses herself in all things French. A travel writer for two decades, Alexis has lived in Antarctica for a year, crossed the Pacific by sailboat and is also a painter – see her work at www.alexisaverbeck.com.

Oliver Berry

Plan Your Trip, Hill Towns of the Luberon, Haute-Provence & the Southern Alps, Understand Provence & the Côte d'Azur, Survival Guide Oliver Berry is a travel writer and photographer based in Cornwall. He has worked on many guidebooks for Lonely Planet, including several editions of the bestselling France guide. He first travelled to Provence on a family holiday aged two, and has been travelling back at every possible opportunity ever since. For this book he covered the Hill

Towns of the Luberon and the mountains of Haute-Provence, covered 3582km, got lost six times and ate an awful lot of olives and fruit confits. His latest work is published at www.oliverberry.com.

Nicola Williams

Cannes & Around; Nice, Monaco & Menton British writer Nicola Williams has lived in France and written about it for more than a decade. From her hillside house on the southern shore of Lake Geneva, it's an easy hop to France's hot south where she has spent endless years revelling in its extraordinary art, architecture, cuisine and landscape. In 1998 she wrote the 1st edition of Provence & the Côte d'Azur and worked on several subsequent editions. Her travels these days are frequently in the company of her three trilingual children. Find Nicola on Twitter at @Tripalong.
