Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writer

Regis St Louis

Regis first visited Rio back in 2003, and he fell hard for the stunning landscapes, the dynamic music scene, and the open and celebratory spirit of the cariocas. Since then he's been a frequent visitor, celebrating Carnival (sometimes parading with a samba school), experiencing the great outdoors (climbing Pão de Açúcar, hiking remote western beaches), and charting the city's ever-changing dining scene and nightlife. Regis' articles on Rio and South America have appeared in the Chicago Tribune, the Telegraph, on BBC.com and elsewhere. He is also the coordinating author of Lonely Planet's Brazil and South America on a Shoestring guides. He splits his time between New Orleans and the tropics.
