WRITER THANKS
Ria de Jong
Thank you to my destination editors Dora Ball and Clifton Wilkinson for all their help and advice guiding me through my Lonely Planet adventure, and to all those who I met along my travels and who kindly shared their knowledge, time and Singapore secrets with me. To my parents and sister who nurtured my love of the road less travelled, to my travelling circus tribe Craig, Cisca and William, and to Jen, who keeps us all in line.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that’s all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they’d sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony’s belief that ‘a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse’.

Our Writer

Ria de Jong

Ria started life in Asia, born in Sri Lanka to Dutch-Australian parents; she has always relished the hustle and excitement of this continent of contrasts. After growing up in Townsville, Australia, Ria moved to Sydney as a features writer before packing her bags for a five-year stint in the Philippines. Moving to Singapore in 2015 with her husband and two small children, Ria is loving discovering every nook and cranny of this tiny city, country, nation. This is Ria’s second Singapore update for Lonely Planet.
