AUTHOR THANKS

Alan Murphy

A big thanks to my travel companion and friend Smitzy for his patience, advice and adventurous spirit (and for not getting further traffic infringements). In Namibia there are too many to thank but special mention to Almuth Styles in Swakopmund whose assistance was much appreciated, and to the honorary consul in Windhoek for making me legal again after my ID was stolen. Thanks to the numerous CEs at LP that I worked with and to my coauthors whose work on this guide was outstanding. To my gorgeous wife, Alison, whose dancing drives me crazy, but whose strength and spirit inspires me and gives me courage.

Kate Armstrong

A special thanks to the Raw family and Katie McCarthy for their kindness and ongoing help, and to fellow writer Tom Spurling for doing the groundwork in Lesotho. Huge thanks to coordinator Alan and the Lonely Planet team.

Lucy Corne

Thanks to my mum and dad for first introducing me to this wonderful country, and to my husband, Shawn, for finding an excuse to keep us here. Thanks to Kate Armstrong for her KZN tips and to Elmar Neethling and Ed Salomons for all the Durban and Drakensberg insights, to Gary Pnematicatos for bringing me up to speed on Cape Town's nightlife and to my boys for being the best travel companions ever. At Lonely Planet I'd like to say enkosi to Alan, Glenn, David, Lucy and Brigitte for their help and support.

Mary Fitzpatrick

Many thanks to all those who helped me with this update, to Alan for being such a great coordinating author and for the extra words, and – most of all – to Rick, Christopher, Dominic and Gabriel for their company, patience and good humour.

Michael Grosberg

Thanks to all those who welcomed me with open arms and shared their insight, experience and knowledge of Zambia: Amy Waldman, Oli Dreike, Andy Hogg, Jess and Ade Salmon, Alec Cole and Emma Wood, Tyrone McKeith, Linda van Heerden, Greg Heltzer, Riccardo Garbaccio, Meegan Treen, Natalie Clark, Adrian Penny, Lynda and Rick Schulz, Glenn Evans, Sheila Donnelly, Ian Stevenson (who let me 'co-spot' on an antipoaching flight over the Lower Zambezi), Mindy Roberts, Nathalie Zanoli and Samrat Datta.

Anthony Ham

Andy Raggett of Drive Botswana was an invaluable source of information at all stages of the journey. Thanks also to Mike Romeo, Will Gourlay, Alan Murphy, Glyn Maude, Keitumetse Ngaka, Olefile Sebogiso, Nick Jacobsen, Monika Schiess and to Jan and Cleo in Khutse. Special thanks to Jan and Ron, and to my three girls Marina, Carlota and Valentina: Os quiero con todo mi corazon.

Trent Holden & Kate Morgan

There are some huge thank yous to give out for the help we received while researching. First up thanks to Joy in Victoria Falls, and Kim in Livingstone for all your assistance in getting some of the nitty gritty stuff down pat. The Seremwe brothers, James and George, for all their guidance and assistance.

Sally Wynn for her unparalleled knowledge of Kariba and around. Choice Mushunje from Zimbabwe Parks, Gordon Adams, Ann Bruce and Jane High from the east, and Val from Bulawayo. Thanks also to all the travellers we met, including John and Linda Hutton for all the suggestions. Finally huge thanks to the production team, particularly Will Gourlay, Glenn van der Knijff and coordinating author Alan Murphy.

Richard Waters

My special thanks to Rob and Lindsay McConaghy and their excellent team who provided specialist advice every step of the way; Chris Badger, Zane, and Emma and Chris; Gaye Russell, Kate Webb and my Malawian pal Gareth Watson for keeping me company. Thanks also to James Lightfoot for his valuable help. Finally my gratitude to the people of Malawi who remain in adversity among the most decent I've ever met.
