WRITER THANKS

Anthony Ham

So many people helped me along the way and brought such wisdom and insight to this book. Special thanks as always to Andy Raggett at Drive Botswana, and to Paul Funston, Lise Hansson, Luke Hunter, Charlotte Pollard, Rob Reid, Eva Meurs, Daan Smit, Jacob Tembo, Induna Mundandwe, Kasia Siwa, Lara Good, Ying Yi Ho, and to Frank, Juliane, Tim and Ann-Sophie. At Lonely Planet, heartfelt thanks to my editor Matt Phillips – no-one knows Africa like him. And to Marina, Carlota and Valentina – I loved sharing some of my favourite corners of Africa with you.

James Bainbridge

Believe the hype about Malawian friendliness: this really is the Warm Heart of Africa. Ziko-mo, then, to pretty much everyone for being so awesome, and in particular to the many folk, too numerous to mention, in lodges from Mzuzu to Mulanje. My research trip was considerably more fruitful and fun with your local knowledge and sociable bottles of Green.

Lucy Corne

A huge enkosi to all who shared their insider tips, including Heather, Ivor, Eben, Terri, Shae, Meruschka, Megan, Scott, Troye, Matt, Sean, Sal, Tanya, Elmar, Ed and Sylvia. Thanks to Matt, Dianne and Dan at LP and great big hugs to my mum and dad for becoming travelling au pairs during research. High five to Kai, the cutest little LP writer-in-training, for being awesome throughout those long road trips. And above all, this one is for Shawn – I absolutely couldn’t have done it without you.

Mary Fitzpatrick

Many thanks to all those who helped me during this project, especially to Rafael Holt in Tofo for the excellent background information; to Sidney Bliss in Maputo for updates on the latest Mozambique happenings; and to the staff at Maputo Special Reserve and at Limpopo National Park. My biggest thanks go to Rick, Christopher, Dominic and Gabriel for their company, patience, good humour and support in Mozambique and back home.
Trent Holden
First up thanks to Matt Phillips for commissioning me to go to Zimbabwe, one of my all-time favourite countries in the world, as well as all the production staff for putting this together. A huge thanks to Karl Wright and Jenny Nobes from Rhino Safari Camp for all their assistance in getting around Matusadona and for tips and recommendations across the country – an unbelievable help! Also thanks to the following people for all their time and assistance: the team from Chilo Gorge Lodge, Joy from Victoria Falls and Gordon Addams, Ann Bruce, Tempe, Jane, Jacqui and George from the Eastern Highlands. A huge thanks to James S once again for taking time out to go on a road trip – I had a ball! Finally lots of love to my family, especially my partner Kate who allows me to travel to such far-flung, exotic places.

Brendan Sainsbury
Thanks to all the untold taxi drivers, chefs, hotel receptionists, tour guides and innocent bystanders who helped me during this research. Special thanks to Jasper and Bart in Pemba, the guys at Cinco Portas on Ibo Island, Peter at Pensão Gurúè, and the wonderful staff at Gorongosa National Park.

Mary Fitzpatrick
Maputo, Southern Mozambique  Originally from the USA, Mary spent her early years dreaming of how to get across an ocean or two to more exotic locales. Following graduate studies, she set off for Europe. Her fascination with languages and cultures soon led her further south to Africa, where she has spent the past two decades living and working as a professional travel writer all around the continent. She focuses particularly on East and Southern Africa, including Mozambique and Tanzania. Mary has authored and co-authored many guidebooks for Lonely Planet, including Mozambique; Tanzania; South Africa, Lesotho & Swaziland; East Africa; West Africa; and Egypt.

Trent Holden
Victoria Falls, Zambia, Zimbabwe  A writer based in Geelong, just outside Melbourne, Trent has worked for Lonely Planet since 2005. He’s covered 30-plus guidebooks across Asia, Africa and Australia. With a penchant for megacities, Trent’s in his element when assigned to cover a nation’s capital – the more chaotic the better – to unearth cool bars, art, street food and underground subculture. On the flipside he also writes guides to idyllic tropical islands across Asia, in between going on safari to national parks in Africa and the subcontinent. When not travelling, Trent works as a freelance editor and reviewer and spends all his money catching live gigs. You can catch him on Twitter @hombreholden

Brendan Sainsbury
Central Mozambique, Northern Mozambique  Born and raised in the UK in a town that never merits a mention in any guidebook (Andover, Hampshire), Brendan spent the holidays of his youth caravanning in the English Lake District and didn’t leave Blighty until he was nineteen. Making up for lost time, he’s since squeezed 70 countries into a sometimes precarious existence as a writer and professional vagabond. In the last eleven years, he has written over 40 books for Lonely Planet, covering destinations from Castro’s Cuba to the canyons of Peru. When not scribbling research notes, Brendan likes partaking in ridiculous ‘endurance’ races, strumming old Clash songs on the guitar, and experiencing the pain and occasional pleasures of following Southampton Football Club.
OUR STORY
A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that’s all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they’d sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony’s belief that ‘a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse’.

OUR WRITERS

Anthony Ham
Botswana, Namibia, Planning, Survival Guide, Health
Anthony is a freelance writer and photographer who specialises in Spain, East and Southern Africa, the Arctic and the Middle East. When he’s not writing for Lonely Planet, Anthony writes about and photographs Spain, Africa and the Middle East for newspapers and magazines in Australia, the UK and US. In 2001, after years of wandering the world, Anthony finally found his spiritual home when he fell irretrievably in love with Madrid on his first visit to the city. Less than a year later, he arrived there on a one-way ticket, with not a word of Spanish and not knowing a single person in the city. When he finally left Madrid ten years later, Anthony spoke Spanish with a Madrid accent, was married to a local and Madrid had become his second home. Now back in Australia, Anthony continues to travel the world in search of stories.

James Bainbridge
Malawi
James is a British travel writer and journalist based in Cape Town, South Africa, from where he roams the globe and contributes to publications worldwide. He has been working on Lonely Planet projects for over a decade, updating dozens of guidebooks and TV hosting everywhere from the African bush to the Great Lakes. He has contributed to several editions of Lonely Planet’s South Africa, Lesotho & Swaziland, Turkey and Morocco guides, and his articles on travel, culture and investment appear in the likes of BBC Travel, the UK Guardian and Independent, Condé Nast Traveller and Lonely Planet Traveller.

Lucy Corne
South Africa, Lesotho, Swaziland
Lucy left university with a degree in journalism and a pair of perpetually itchy feet. She taught EFL for eight years in Spain, South Korea, Canada, China and India, while writing freelance features for a range of magazines, newspapers and websites. She joined the Lonely Planet team in 2008 and has since worked on a range of titles including Africa, Canary Islands, South Africa, Lesotho & Swaziland and several foodie titles. Lucy lives in Cape Town with her husband and young son, where she writes on travel, food and beer. Her popular blog, www.brewmistress.co.za, documents the South African beer scene.
