AUTHOR THANKS

Nicola Williams

Huge thanks as always to the many friends/strangers/acquaintances/colleagues who aided and abetted in tracking down the very best, including Christian Keel, Christine Schröder and Pascal Gebert in Zermatt; born-and-bred Sion girl Sabin Van Vliet; Sami Lamaa from fave piste-side pad Chetzeron; and, for top Glacier Express tips, Lonely Planet destination editor Kate Morgan. Extra-special kudos to my very own, super-powered, trilingual 'Switzerland-with-kids' research team: Niko, Mischa & Kaya Luefkens (kept in check on the road by super-husband Matthias).

Kerry Christiani

I would like to thank all the super-efficient tourism professionals up and down the country who made research run like (Swiss) clockwork, especially those in the Jungfrau Region and the SBB team. A big Grazia to Hans Lozza and Roman Gross for their insight into the Swiss National Park. As always, thanks to my husband Andy Christiani for his ongoing support.

Gregor Clark

Merci vielmal to countless people who shared their love and knowledge of Switzerland with me, especially Anja Stetter, Susanne Seiler and Sally O'Brien. Thanks also to my parents Henry and Nancy Clark, who first introduced me to the Matterhorn and infected me with their own love for languages and travel. Back home, love and hugs to my wife Gaen and daughters Meigan and Chloe, who always make coming home the best part of the trip.

Sally O'Brien

Thank you to Kate Morgan for commissioning me and to co-ordinating author Nicola Williams for both a steady hand on the tiller and a great blueprint. Much gratitude is due to Denis Balibouse for keeping the home caquelon bubbling when I head off to work, and to him again and the two BBs for the welcome when I return. Thanks also to my in-laws, Ellen and Guy, for all their help and local knowledge.
