SEND US YOUR FEEDBACK

We love to hear from travellers – your comments keep us on our toes and help make our books better. Our well-travelled team reads every word on what you loved or loathed about this book. Although we cannot reply individually to your submissions, we always guarantee that your feedback goes straight to the appropriate authors, in time for the next edition. Each person who sends us information is thanked in the next edition – and the most useful submissions are rewarded with a selection of digital PDF chapters.

Visit lonelyplanet.com/contact to submit your updates and suggestions or to ask for help. Our award-winning website also features inspirational travel stories, news and discussions.

Note: We may edit, reproduce and incorporate your comments in Lonely Planet products such as guidebooks, websites and digital products, so let us know if you don't want your comments reproduced or your name acknowledged. For a copy of our privacy policy visit lonelyplanet.com/privacy.

OUR READERS

Many thanks to the travellers who used the last edition and wrote to us with helpful hints, useful advice and interesting anecdotes:

Franziska Feldmann, Hana Murr, Brian Scanlan, Vicki Stanton

AUTHOR THANKS

Peter Dragicevich

I owe a great debt of thanks to all my Sydney support crew, particularly David Mills, Barry Sawtell, Tony Dragicevich, Debbie Debono, Tim Moyes and Michael Woodhouse. Thanks for sacrificing your stomachs and livers so enthusiastically for this book.

Miriam Raphael

Thank you Tasmin Waby for getting in touch, Di Schallmeiner and Lauren Wellicome for your insanely quick responses to my Christo crises (real and imagined), and the editing team for their flexibility around the birth of baby Raph. Cheers to all the north-coast locals who so happily shared their secrets. A huge thanks to Ken's red pen (let that ink never run out) and my wing-peeps Marcel and Pearl.

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Peter Dragicevich

After a decade of frequent flights between his native New Zealand and Sydney, the lure of the bright lights and endless beach days drew Peter across the Tasman on a more permanent basis. For the best part of the next decade he would call Sydney's inner suburbs home, while managing the city's most popular gay and lesbian newspaper, followed by a stable of upmarket food, fashion and photography magazines. More recently he's coauthored dozens of titles for Lonely Planet, including two previous editions of this guide and five other Australian titles. Peter wrote the Plan Your Trip and Explore Sydney chapters (excluding Sydney with Kids, Like a Local, For Free, Beaches, Day Trips from Sydney and Sleeping), along with the Understand Sydney and Survival Guide sections.

Miriam Raphael

Miriam has authored over a dozen books for Lonely Planet, racking up thousands of kilometres driving across Australia's wide brown lands in pursuit of the greatest hidden beaches, outback-pub meals and curious characters.

She regularly enthuses on all things travel for a range of Australian and international publications, while blogging about intrepid journeys with kids at SevenSuitcases.com. After many years living in Australia's extraordinary Northern Territory she has recently returned to her hometown of Sydney. Miriam wrote the Sydney with Kids, Like a Local, For Free, Beaches, Day Trips from Sydney and Sleeping chapters.
