SEND US YOUR FEEDBACK

We love to hear from travellers – your comments keep us on our toes and help make our books better. Our well-travelled team reads every word on what you loved or loathed about this book. Although we cannot reply individually to your submissions, we always guarantee that your feedback goes straight to the appropriate authors, in time for the next edition. Each person who sends us information is thanked in the next edition – the most useful submissions are rewarded with a selection of digital PDF chapters.

Visit lonelyplanet.com/contact to submit your updates and suggestions or to ask for help. Our award-winning website also features inspirational travel stories, news and discussions.

Note: We may edit, reproduce and incorporate your comments in Lonely Planet products such as guidebooks, websites and digital products, so let us know if you don’t want your comments reproduced or your name acknowledged. For a copy of our privacy policy visit lonelyplanet.com/privacy.

OUR READERS

Many thanks to the travellers who used the last edition and wrote to us with helpful hints, useful advice and interesting anecdotes:

AUTHOR THANKS

Celeste Brash

Thanks to Patrick Humbert and Diana Hammer for sailing away in the 1970s, to my kids and husband for being the heart of the adventure and to all my Tahitian friends and family for laughter and love. In the islands, thanks to Melanie and Ray on Huahine, Lili Hunter, Valena and the emergency doctors on Ra’iatea, the Atges on Taha’a, Kiki on Nuku Hiva, all of ‘Ua Huka (and bad weather), the Kaysers on Hiva Oa and the good people at Tahiti Tourism in Pape’ete and in the US. Special shout out to my extraordinary colleague Jean-Bernard, the best co-author in the world, and to Tasmin Waby, our wily editor.

Jean-Bernard Carillet

Heaps of thanks to the South Pacific team at LP, especially Tasmin, for her trust and support, and to the editorial and cartography teams, including Diana Von Holdt. A heartfelt māururu roa to coordinating author Celeste, with whom I share the same passion for that trippy fenua. In French Polynesia, a special mention goes to my second family, the Peirsegaeles in Mahina – thanks Yan, Vai, Sean, Majo, Hubert for having open all doors and the infectious aroha. A big thanks also to all people who helped out and made this trip so enlightening, including Katou, Moearii, Manoa, Zelie, Isabelle, Lionel, Yves, Sébastien, Marco, Vladimir and Ludo. As always, a big bisou to Eva and Chris, who are always supportive.

OUR STORY
A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that’s all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they’d sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Dublin, Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony’s belief that ‘a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse’.

OUR WRITERS

Celeste Brash
Celeste first visited French Polynesia in 1991, fell in love with the place and the man who would become her husband, and moved to the country in 1995. After five years pearl farming and raising babies on a remote atoll, she and her family moved to Tahiti where they spent the next 10 years surfing, dancing, swimming and, oh yeah, working. She now divides her time between Tahiti and Portland, Oregon. During all this moving about her award-winning writing has appeared in publications from the BBC to National Geographic. Find more about her at www.celestebrash.com.

Jean-Bernard Carillet
Paris-based journalist and photographer Jean-Bernard is a French Polynesia expert. So far, he has explored 29 islands in the five archipelagos and has clocked up more than 13 trips. For this gig he searched for the most idyllic motu (small islets), the best manta-ray encounters, the most thrilling lagoon tours, the tastiest poisson cru, the most romantic resorts and the best value accommodations. His favourite experiences included diving with hundreds of grey sharks on Fakarava, swimming in Makemo lagoon – the most translucent water he’s ever seen – and climbing Mt Duff in the Gambier Archipelago.
