AUTHOR THANKS

Celeste Brash

Most thanks to Diana Hammer and Patrick Humbert for starting this adventure, and to my kids Jasmine and Tevai and my husband Josh for continuing it. This book wouldn't be what it is without the excellent input, collaboration and first edition written by author/superhero Jean-Bernard Carillet. Maryanne Netto has done a fine job putting this guide together in a calm, Polynesian way. All of my work on this book is in loving memory of my son's beautiful godfather, Ralph Ioane.

Jean-Bernard Carillet

Heaps of thanks to the South Pacific team at Lonely Planet, especially Maryanne and Errol, for their trust and support, and to the editorial and cartography teams. A heartfelt māuruuru roa to coordinating author Celeste, with whom I share the same passion for that trippy fenua; she was utterly helpful and patient throughout the process. In French Polynesia, a special mention goes to my second family, the Peirsegaes in Mahina – thanks Yan, Vai, Sean, Majo and Hubert for having opened all doors, and the infectious aroha (despite a broken car). A big thanks also to all people who helped out and made this trip so enlightening, including Alain Buzenet (next time we'll be off to the motu!), Katou, Verly, Heikura, Moearii, Pam, Reata, Tepupu, Lucile, Céline, Lionel and Pascale, among others. And how could I forget Christine and my daughter Eva, who shared some of my Polynesian adventures and give direction to my otherwise roving life?
