WRITER THANKS

Piera Chen

Special thanks to Alvin Tse and Lee Chia-jung for much-needed support and inspiration. Gratitude also goes to Max Chang, Airey Wong, Nato and Trista, Anson Ng, Mark Hanson, Sigmund and Weihsiu, Lam Lap-wai, Eric Chan, Wen Li Tesar and Evelyn Lua for making this book much stronger than I could have made it on my own. And finally a big fat thank you to Kontau and Clio for their love and patience.

Dinah Gardner

I would like to thank all the friendly Taiwanese people who helped me along the way, especially Aidan Chuang, who truly has his finger on the pulse of Taipei's heartbeat. I am also grateful to my editor, Megan, for being so patient; and Miguel Fialho, who listened patiently day after day! Lastly I would like to thank Taiwan itself, a kind and generous host to all visitors.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.
