DRIVING LICENCE & DOCUMENTS

When driving in Italy you are required to carry with you:

- ➔ The vehicle registration document
- ➔ Your driving licence
- ➔ Proof of third-party liability insurance

Driving Licence

- ➔ All EU member states' driving licences are fully recognised throughout Europe.
- ➔ Travellers from other countries should obtain an International Driving Permit (IDP) through their national automobile association. This should be carried with your licence; it is not a substitute for it.
- ➔ No licence is needed to ride a scooter under 50cc. To ride a motorcycle or scooter up to 125cc, you'll need a licence (a car licence will do). For motorcycles over 125cc you need a motorcycle licence.

INSURANCE

- ➔ Third-party liability insurance is mandatory for all vehicles in Italy, including cars brought in from abroad.
- ➔ If driving an EU-registered vehicle, your home country insurance is sufficient. Ask your insurer for a European Accident Statement (EAS) form, which can simplify matters in the event of an accident.
- ➔ Hire agencies provide the minimum legal insurance, but you can supplement it if you choose.

HIRING A CAR

Car-hire agencies are widespread in Italy but pre-booking on the internet is often cheaper. Considerations before renting:

- ➔ Bear in mind that a car is generally more hassle than it's worth in cities, so only hire one for the time you'll be on the open road.
- ➔ Consider vehicle size carefully. High fuel prices, extremely narrow streets and tight parking conditions mean that smaller is often better.
- ➔ Road signs can be iffy in remote areas, so consider booking and paying for satnav.
