Top Itineraries

Day One

Gastown (p81)

Start your wander around old town

Gastown in Maple Tree Square. Admire the 'Gassy Jack' statue and reflect on the fact that Vancouver might not be here today if it wasn't for the pub John Deighton built here. Since it's a little too early for a drink, peruse the cool shops along Water St, including Orling & Wu and John Fluevog Shoes.

Lunch Ever-popular Tacofino (p83) is one of the city's finest taco joints.

Chinatown (p82)

Your lunch spot is just a few steps from Chinatown, another top historic 'hood. Spend some time winding around the kaleidoscopically hued streets. Don't miss the Chinatown Millennium Gate on Pender and the aromatic grocery and apothecary stores on Keefer St. Use your magnifying glass to sleuth out the Vancouver Police Museum before ending your afternoon at the delightfully tranquil Dr Sun Yat-Sen Classical Chinese Garden.

Dinner Head for contemporary Chinatown favorite Bao Bei (p86)

Main St (p130)

Walk south uphill on Main (or hop bus 3). Within a few minutes, you'll be at Brassneck (p137), Vancouver's favorite microbrewery. Drink deeply, and don't miss the Passive Aggressive pale ale.

Day Two

Main St (p133)

Have a lazy late start then get moving with a hearty diner breakfast (plus copious coffee) at Argo Cafe. Then cross over Main St to explore the city's new gallery district, the Flats, colonizing a host of old industrial units. Next, hop on and off bus 3 southwards as you explore Main.

Lunch Dock Lunch (p135) feels just like dining in someone's home.

Main St (p141)

Bus to the 18th Ave intersection and hop off at the Main Street Poodle statue for some on-foot wandering. Check out Vancouver's best indie stores, from vinyl-loving Neptoon Records to the delightfully quirky Regional Assembly of Text stationery store. Back on the bus, backtrack north to the intersection with Broadway and transfer to the 99B Line express, heading east; you'll be at Commercial Dr in 10 minutes.

Dinner Head to Jamjar (p117) for excellent Lebanese comfort food.

Commercial Drive (p120)

Spend the evening bar - (or coffee house -) hopping along the Drive. Whatever you do, don't miss Storm Crow Tavern, Vancouver's original nerd pub; free the Vulcan of your dreams at the bar.

Day Three

Stanley Park (p54)

 Get here before the crowds to stroll the seawall, photograph the totem poles and nip into the Vancouver Aquarium to commune with the aquatic critters. Consider exploring the park by bike if you have time. You'll find some beady-eyed blue herons hanging out at Lost Lagoon – duck into the Stanley Park Nature House to find out more about them.

Lunch Drop in to Stanley's Bar & Grill (p72) for a salmon burger and beer.

West End (p61)

 Fully explore the tree-lined West End neighborhood just outside the park, including Davie and Denman Sts. Save time for English Bay Beach and, a few blocks away, Roedde House Museum. There are also plenty of coffee and shopping spots to lure your attention.

Dinner Dive into some locally sourced West Coast dishes at Forage (p66).

West End (p72)

 Davie St is the center of Vancouver's gay nightlife scene, and the area has plenty of cool options for folks of all persuasions to hang with the locals. Consider a sunset-viewing cocktail at Sylvia's Lounge in the neighborhood's ivy-covered heritage hotel. Or dive into

Day Four

University of British Columbia (UBC) (p162)

 Start your day at the biggest university in British Columbia (BC), exploring a surprising wealth of attractions. The Museum of Anthropology and Beaty Biodiversity Museum are must-sees, while the green-thumbed should also check out the UBC Botanical Garden and the Nitobe Memorial Garden. Stick around and explore the waterfront campus: it's dotted with intriguing public artworks.

Lunch Join the students at the ever-welcoming Koerner's Pub. (p174)

Kitsilano (p162)

 Hop bus 4 from UBC and you'll soon be on boutique-lined 4th Ave. You'll find plenty of cool independent shops and eateries here. Don't miss Silk Road Tea, Zulu Records and the travel-themed store, Wanderlust. Add coffee at Dinner Tuck into a Thai feast at Maenam (p172).

49th Parallel Coffee or an ice cream at Rain or Shine.

Granville Island (p103)

 Continue on to Granville Island for drinks at Granville Island Brewing Taproom before catching a raucous improv show at Vancouver Theatresports League (just remember:

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writer

John Lee

Born and raised in the UK, John grew up in the lengthy shadow of London, then succumbed to the lure of Canada's West Coast in 1993 to begin an MA in Political Science at the University of Victoria. Regular trips home to Britain ensued, along with stints living in Tokyo and Montreal, before he returned to British Columbia to become a full-time freelance writer in 1999. Now living in Vancouver, John specializes in travel writing and has contributed to more than 150 different publications around the world. You can read some of his stories (and see some of his videos) online at www.johnleewriter.com. John has worked on around 25 Lonely Planet books, including Canada, British Columbia, Western Europe, Vancouver and Europe on a Shoestring.
