Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Melbourne, London and Oakland, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Alison Bing

Coordinating Author, Sestiere di San Marco, Sestiere di Dorsoduro, Sestiere di Cannaregio, Sestieri di San Polo & Santa Croce, Murano, Burano & the Northern Islands When she's not scribbling notes in church pews or methodically eating her way across Venice's sestieri (neighbourhoods), Alison contributes to Lonely Planet's Venice, USA, Morocco, San Francisco, Marrakesh, California and Discover Italy guides, as well as food, art and architure magazines. Alison holds a bachelor's degree in art history and a master's degree from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, a joint program of Tufts and Harvard Universities – perfectly respectable diplomatic credentials she regularly undermines with opinionated culture commentary for newspapers, magazines, TV and radio. Currently she divides her time between San Francisco and an Etruscan hilltop town in central Italy with partner Marco Flavio Marinucci, and tweets her finds at www.twitter.com/AlisonBing. Alison also contributed Plan Your Trip, Sleeping, Understand Venice & the Veneto and the colour sections in this guide.

Robert Landon

Sestiere di Castello, Giudecca, Lido & the Southern Islands Since first crossing from congested Piazzale Roma into the car-free canals of Venice, Robert has been hooked on the watery city. He's returned many times and in every season, from snowy February to sweltering August; its charms never diminish. However, it was albino asparagus and Valpolicella reds that had him writing home on his most recent trip to the Veneto. Before working for Lonely Planet, Robert studied Italian at Stanford University, and he also lived a half-year in both Rome and Florence. Currently based in Rio de Janeiro, he has written about travel, arts and culture for a range of publications, including the London Daily Telegraph, the Los Angeles Times and Dwell magazine. Other Lonely Planet titles include Florence Encounter, Brazil, Colombia, California, Portugal and West Africa. Robert also contributed Day Trips from Venice, Sleeping, Directory A–Z and Transport in this guide.

Top Itineraries

Day One

San Marco (p50)

 Begin your day in prison on the Secret Passageways tour of the Palazzo Ducale, then make a break for espresso in Piazza San Marco before the Byzantine blitz of golden mosaics inside Basilica di San Marco. Browse boutique-lined backstreets to Museo Fortuny, the palace fashion house whose slinky goddess gowns set standards for Bohemian glamour.

Lunch Enoteca al Volto (p65): handmade pasta in a hidden calle.

Dorsoduro (p77)

 Pause atop wooden Ponte dell'Accademia for Grand Canal photo-ops, then discover visual splendours no camera can convey inside Gallerie dell'Accademia – now you see where Venetian painters get their reputations for vibrant colour and major drama. Wander to Squero di San Trovaso to watch gondolas being built, then bask in the afternoon sunlight and dazzling views of Palladio's Il Redentore along waterfront Zattere. Stop at tiny Chiesa di San Sebastian, packed with Veroneses, then troll artisan boutiques along Calle Lunga San Barnaba until it's 'spritzy o'clock' (cocktail hour) in Campo Santa Margherita.

Dinner Bacaro Da Fiore (p65): quick bites of seafood, superior Soave.

San Marco (p50)

 The hottest ticket in town during opera season is at La Fenice, but classical music fans shouldn't miss Vivaldi played with contemporary verve by Interpreti Veneziani.

Day Two

Dorsoduro (p77)

 Discover the modern art that caused uproars and defined the 20th century at the Peggy Guggenheim Collection, then confront contemporary art pushing 21st-century buttons inside Punta della Dogana, Venice's ancient customs house. Hop the vaporetto in front of Baldassare Longhena's domed Chiesa di Santa Maria della Salute up the Grand Canal.

Lunch Enjoy market-fresh feasts in miniature at All'Arco (p104).

San Polo & Santa Croce (p96)

 Shop your way south to masterpieces facing off across Campo San Rocco: I Frari, featuring Titian's radiant altarpiece, and Scuola Grande di San Rocco, filled with stormy Tintoretto masterpieces. Antique shops and artisan studios line your route from Campo dei Frari to Campo San Polo and Campo San Giacomo dell'Orto, where the medieval church restores the senses with meditative calm. Test your orienteering skills on the winding back lanes of the former red-light district, heading across Ponte delle Tette (Tits Bridge) towards Al Mercá for happy hour.

Dinner Al Pesador (p104): Grand Canal seats, memorable market-inspired fare.

San Marco (p50)

 Cross Ponte di Rialto to join overflow crowds grooving to DJ sets at Osteria All'Alba, or order your new favourite Veneto vintage at I Rusteghi.

Day Three

Castello (p125)

 Wayward socialites were warehoused at Chiesa di San Zaccaria, but you're free to wander from these Byzantine marvels to Renaissance glories at frescoed Palazzo Grimani. Refuel with espresso and a jolt of modernism at Mario Botta-designed QCoffee Bar, then head to brick Gothic Zanipolo for blasts from the pasts: marble tombs of 25 dogi. The Renaissance is only two bridges away at Chiesa di Santa Maria degli Miracoli, a polychrome marble miracle made from Basilica di San Marco's leftovers.

Lunch Slow Food that goes down fast: try panini at Zenzero (p138).

Cannaregio (p114)

 Turn away from shopping temptations along Strada Nuova to find sudden calm along Fondamenta della Misericordia. Pass statue sentries ringing Campo dei Mori to reach Chiesa della Madonna dell'Orto, the white-trimmed, red-brick Gothic church that was the object of Tintoretto's painterly attentions for decades. Tour the Ghetto's rooftop synagogues and enjoy quiet reflection in Ikona Gallery and Old World Books, until Venice's happiest hours beckon across the bridge at Al Timon.

Dinner Hearty meals to satisfy sailors await at Dalla Marisa (p121).

Cannaregio (p114)

 Take a romantic gondola ride through Cannaregio's long canals, which seem purpose-built to maximise moonlight.

Day Four

Murano, Burano & the Northern Islands (p154)

 Make your lagoon getaway on a vaporetto bound for rainbow-coloured Burano and green and gold Torcello. Follow the sheep-trail to Torcello's Byzantine cathedral, where a golden Madonna in the apse calmly stares down the blue devils opposite. Explore relics of this Byzantine capital and spot lagoon birds no longer hunted by Hemingway, then head to Burano to admire extreme home-design schemes and handmade lace.

Lunch Venissa (p160): Sunny Mazzorbo vineyards, inspired lagoon cuisine.

Murano, Burano & the Northern Islands (p154)

 Witness the fiery passions of glass artisans in action at Murano's legendary fornace (furnaces), and see some of their finest moments at the Museum of Glass. After Murano showrooms close, hop the vaporetto all the way to Giudecca for one last, long view of San Marco glittering across glassy waters.

Dinner I Figli delle Stelle (p151): Hearty dishes and romantic canal-side tables.

San Marco (p50)

 Celebrate your triumphant tour of the lagoon with a prosecco toast and tango across Piazza San Marco at Caffè Florian; repeat as necessary.
