

Explore: San Marco

Take a walk through Venice's golden glories in the basilica and its dark secrets on the Palazzo Ducale Itinerari Segreti tour, then dive into backstreets to find artisan studios, contemporary art galleries and bargain cicheti. Detour for fashion and art shows at Museo Fortuny and sunset cocktails at Harry's bar, but don't miss the overture at La Fenice. Return to moonlit Piazza San Marco for a tango across the square, and watch the Moors strike midnight atop Torre dell'Orologio, heralding another day in the life of San Marco's charmed existence.

Local Life

- ➔ Cheap eats & fancy drinks Skip sad congealed pizza slices around San Marco and trawl backstreets for bargain cicheti and top-notch Veneto wines at I Rusteghi (p72), Bacaro Da Fiore (p65) and Cavatappi (p72).
- ➔ Musical stylings Start on a high note at La Fenice (p59), go for baroque at Interpreti Veneziani (p74), tango at Caffè Florian (p73), tarantella at Caffè Lavena (p73) and hang on to your wine-glass through soaring arias at Musica A Palazzo (p74).
- ➔ Galleries Rising from the shadows of historic Santa Maria del Giglio and La Fenice are Venice's best contemporary art galleries (p62), where international and Italian artists supply steady inspiration between Biennales.
- ➔ Artisan finds Mass-market designers line thoroughfares from the Rialto and Accademia to Piazza San Marco – but along backstreets between, Venetian artisans still handcraft handbags, travel journals and glass jewellery (p74).

Getting There & Away

- ➔ Vaporetto Vaporetti 1 and N stop along the Grand Canal at several points in San Marco, including Rialto, Sant'Angelo, San Samuele, Santa Maria del Giglio and Vallaresso.
- ➔ Walking Follow yellow-signed shortcuts from the Rialto through shop-lined Marzarie to Piazza San Marco.

Lonely Planet's Top Tip

In San Marco, the price of a sit-down cappuccino seems more like rent. Take your coffee standing at a bar for just €1 to €2.50, spend a couple more euros for sunshine and people-watching at a campo table, or luxuriate in the baroque cafes of Piazza San Marco. There's usually a €6 music surcharge for outdoor seating in Piazza San Marco, so you may as well get your money's worth and tango.
