Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Melbourne, London, Oakland and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Anthony Haywood

Coordinating Author, The Hofburg & Around and Stephansdom & the Historic Centre

Anthony is a freelance journalist and has been based in Germany for over two decades. While travelling to Moscow in the very early 1990s he detoured to Vienna, the first of very frequent travels to the Austrian capital.

This was the start of a fascination with Vienna, which he loves for its unusual contrasts of high and low culture, and of course for the Viennese themselves and their humour, the famous Wiener Schmah. While writing this new edition of the city guidebook he explored the capital under snow in double-digit subzero temperatures – Vienna from one of its most beautiful sides. He has coordinated and coauthored numerous guidebooks and written a cultural history of Siberia (useful for surviving cold snaps). Anthony wrote most of the Plan Your Trip section, along with the Neighbourhoods at a Glance and Sleeping chapters and the Understand Vienna and Survival Guide sections. ### Kerry Christiani

Karlplatz & Around Naschmarkt, The Museum District & Neubau, Alsergrund & the University District, Schloss Belvedere to the Canal, Prater & East of the Danube, Schloss Schönbrunn & Around

Ever since her first postgrad trip to Austria, Kerry has seized every available chance to return to Vienna. For this edition she spent several snowy, subzero weeks in the Austrian capital, wallowing in the richness of the city's palaces and Klimt-crammed museums, waltzing through hidden backstreets to sniff out the best restaurants and newest boutiques, and having her cake and eating it (again, and again) while road-testing scores of Vienna's best coffee houses. Kerry has authored or coauthored some 20 guidebooks, including Lonely Planet's Austria, Germany, France and Switzerland guidebooks. She tweets @kerrychristiani and lists her latest work at www.kerrychristiani.com. Kerry also wrote the Coffee Houses & Cake Shops, Drinking & Nightlife, Shopping, Sports & Activities and Sleeping chapters, and the Salzburg section of Day Trips from Vienna.

Marc Di Duca

Day Trips from Vienna Marc's troublingly nostalgic obsession with the Austro-Hungarian Empire goes back over 25 years, during which time he has visited many of its most far-flung corners. Hence, a week-long border-hopping expedition between three countries for the Day Trips from Vienna chapter was just the ticket, and saw Marc hiking trails deep into the snowbound Podyji National Park, clambering through the vineyards of the Wachau and crossing the Danube more times than a Viennese taxi driver. This is Marc's 25th contribution for Lonely Planet.

Top Itineraries

Day One

Stephansdom & the Historic Centre (p73)

 Start your day with a visit to Stephansdom, taking a stroll through the interior of the church and admiring the Domschatz cathedral treasures. For a bird's-eye view of Vienna, climb the cathedral south tower to the platform. Alternatively, take in one of the other cathedral sights, such as the Katakomben (catacombs). Use the rest of the morning to stroll the narrow streets around the cathedral.

Lunch Deli food and a glass of wine at Zum Schwarzen Kameel (p87).

The Hofburg & Around (p58)

 Make your way along Graben and Kohlmarkt to the Hofburg, where one of the nicest things to do is simply to wander through and soak up the grandeur of this Habsburg architectural masterpiece. Choose one or two of the museums here, such as the Kaiserappartements.

Dinner Restaurant Herrlich (p69): traditional but classy Viennese cuisine.

The Museum District & Neubau (p111)

 Especially on a warm summer evening, this public space framed by historic and contemporary architecture is great for people-watching and enjoying an outdoor drink. Stroll off the drink on floodlit Maria-Theresian-Platz or behind the MuseumsQuartier in cobblestone Spittelberg.

Day Two

The Museum District & Neubau (p111)

 After sniffing morning air and perhaps a coffee kick-start in the MuseumsQuartier, cross the road to the Kunsthistorisches Museum, where you can plan on spending a whole morning.

Lunch Head back into the Museums-Quartier or deeper into Neubau.

The Museum District & Neubau (p111)

 After several hours of grand masters, the afternoon is a good time to change artistic direction and explore at least one of the museums in the MuseumsQuartier. The light, bright Leopold Museum is a good choice. MUMOK will be a complete contrast, with works that shock (and some consider shocking). Take time again to relax, either by strolling to Café Sperl between museums or resting up in the Museums-Quartier itself.

Dinner Motto am Fluss (p85): hip lounge ambience on the Danube Canal.

Stephansdom & the Historic Centre (p73)

 It's hard to pull yourself away from the post-dinner cocktail lounge at Motto am Fluss but explore the streets and bar scene in the evening in the centre, also hitting architectural delights such as Loos American Bar or Kruger's American Bar.

Café Sperl (p104)

Day Three

Schloss Belvedere to the Canal (p145)

 Plan on spending the whole morning here, dividing your time between the galleries and strolling along the clean lines of Schloss Belvedere's French-style gardens. Lower Belvedere is a palatial temple to the gentry augmented by galleries for temporary exhibitions, while a walk through Upper Belvedere takes you through a who's who of Austrian art.

Lunch Meierei im Stadtpark (p158) for possibly Austria's best goulash.

Prater & East of the Danube (p162)

 After the opulence and art of Schloss Belvedere, the tone is somewhat lower in the Prater, Vienna's playground of woods, meadows and – with the Wurstelprater – sideshow attractions. The crowd screamer here, however, is the Ferris wheel, which takes you up into the lofty heights of Leopoldstadt.

Dinner An eatery around Karmelitermarkt or nearby in Leopoldstadt.

Prater & East of the Danube (p162)

 Leopoldstadt is not overflowing with drinking and nightlife options, but it has a fair sprinkling you can relax in. It's also home to the Pratersauna, one of the city's better clubs.

Day Four

Schloss Schönbrunn & Around (p173)

 Take a tour and walk in the grounds of Schloss Schönbrunn, not forgetting to detour to Gloriette, with magnificent views over the palace grounds toward the city. In warm weather, loiter and stroll at leisure through the grounds and take side trails; otherwise, limit outdoor meanderings to highlights.

Lunch This is a good chance to head to the Naschmarkt (p110).

Karlsplatz & Around Naschmarkt (p93)

 From Naschmarkt stroll to the Karlskirche and take the lift into the dome where there's a stunning fresco by Johann Michael Rottmayr. On reaching the upper landing stage, take the steps up the scaffolding to the top viewing platform. After the Karlskirche, you might feel like a coffee in the Café Drechsler, with its off-beat buzz and design interior.

Dinner An eatery in Margareten's Schlossquadrat, like Silberwirt (p104).

Karlsplatz & Around Naschmarkt (p93)

 Each of Vienna's Vorstädte (inner suburbs between the Ringstrasse and the Gürtel) has a character of its own, and the two districts Margareten (the 5th district) and Mariahilf (the 6th), both flanking the trickling Wien river, offer plenty of nightlife and drinking opportunities. Stroll, explore, sip and enjoy.
