SEND US YOUR FEEDBACK

We love to hear from travellers – your comments keep us on our toes and help make our books better. Our well-travelled team reads every word on what you loved or loathed about this book. Although we cannot reply individually to your submissions, we always guarantee that your feedback goes straight to the appropriate authors, in time for the next edition. Each person who sends us information is thanked in the next edition – the most useful submissions are rewarded with a selection of digital PDF chapters.

Visit lonelyplanet.com/contact to submit your updates and suggestions or to ask for help. Our award-winning website also features inspirational travel stories, news and discussions.

Note: We may edit, reproduce and incorporate your comments in Lonely Planet products such as guidebooks, websites and digital products, so let us know if you don't want your comments reproduced or your name acknowledged. ## WRITER THANKS

Phillip Tang

Thanks to local experts Thanh Hoàì, Hiếu Trần, Henry in Hoi An, Nam Phùng (Léon), Duy Khang, Blue, Vinh Hién, Tri, Jonathan Morana, Mark Zazula, Lê Ngọc Lâm and, especially, Jay Luong for the adventures. Thanks to Iain Stewart and Laura Crawford. Extra appreciation to Géraldine Galvaing – how much did you enjoy muddy, double-glazed Coconut 2.0? For Luu Tiến Lê, Giang Hung and those who came before.

Tim Bewer

A hearty kõrp jai to the many people along the way who answered my incessant questions or helped me out in other ways during this update. In particular, Nicolas Papon-Phalaphanh, Latanakone Keokhamphoui, Yves Verlaine, Khun Buasone and Prapaporn Sompakdee provided great assistance, while Laura, Nick, Rich and the rest of the Lonely Planet team were a pleasure to work with, as always. Finally, a special thanks to my wife, Suttawan, for help on this book and much more.

Greg Bloom

Big thanks to Lina in Siem Reap and to Nick for the useful tips on the ever-changing Cambodian travel scene. Back home, thanks to baby Callie, who just couldn't wait until after my deadlines to arrive, but provided moments of tenderness when she did. To her mama, Windi, thanks for handling the parenting duties while I was drowning under an avalanche of work. And lastly, thanks to new big sister Anna, as always, for the humour and stress relief.

Austin Bush

Thanks to all the generous people on the ground in northern and northeastern Thailand, and to Jennifer Carey for her help and guidance.

Nick Ray

A huge and heartfelt thanks to the people of Cambodia and Laos, whose warmth and humour, stoicism and spirit make these countries happy yet humbling places to be. Biggest thanks are reserved for my wife, Kulikar Sotho, as without her support and encouragement the adventures would not be possible. To our children, Julian and Belle, for signing up for some family adventures in new look Vang Vieng, and mum and dad for giving me a taste for travel from a young age. Thanks to

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

fellow travellers and residents, friends and contacts in Cambodia and Laos who have helped shape my knowledge and experience in this country. Thanks also to my co-authors for going the extra mile to ensure this is a worthy new edition. Finally, thanks to the Lonely Planet team who have worked on this title.

Richard Waters

My special thanks to Elizabeth Vongsa, Adri Berger, Ivan Schulte, Harp, Saly Phimpiniith, Dennis Ulstrup, Annabel and Josef, Agnes, Mr Vongdavone and Marco. Also thanks as usual to my extended family, the Lao people, from whom I seem to learn something every trip. Finally, special thanks to Laura Crawford, my long-suffering Destination Editor who keeps stoic when my technical skills fail to join the 21st century.

China Williams

Thanks to Dora Whitaker and the LP editors who keep me in their email contact list. More thanks to Austin Bush and the other LP authors who maintain the quality and expertise of these guides. And much gratitude to my Thailand friends and contacts: Pim, Nong, Jane and Ruengsang. Hugs to my family who keep me busy in my other life as a mum.

Contributing Writer

Martin Stuart-Fox

Martin Stuart-Fox is Emeritus Professor of History at the University of Queensland, Australia. He has written multiple books and dozens of articles and book chapters on the politics and history of Laos.

OUR WRITERS

Phillip Tang

Vietnam Phillip grew up on typically Australian pho and fish'n'chips. A degree in Chinese- and Latin-American cultures launched him into travel and writing about it for Lonely Planet's Canada, China, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Peru and Vietnam guides. Follow Phillip Tang on instagram: @mrtangtang and twitter: @philliptang

Tim Bower

Laos After briefly holding fort behind a desk as a legislative assistant, Tim decided he didn't have the ego to succeed in the political world (or the stomach to work around those who did). He quit his job at the capitol to backpack around West Africa, during which time he pondered what to do next. His answer was to write a travel guide to parks, forests, and wildlife areas of the gorgeous state of Wisconsin. He's been a freelance travel writer and photographer ever since.

Greg Bloom

Cambodia Greg is a freelance writer, tour operator and travel planner based in Siem Reap, Cambodia, and Manila, Philippines. Greg began his writing in the late '90s working as a journalist, then editor-in-chief of the Kyiv Post, an English-language weekly in Ukraine. As a freelance travel writer, he has contributed to 35 Lonely Planet titles, mostly in Eastern Europe and Asia. He also organises adventure trips in Cambodia and Palawan (Philippines) through his tour company, Bearcat Travel.

Austin Bush

Thailand Austin originally went to Thailand in 1999 as part of a language study program hosted by Chiang Mai University. The lure of city life, employment and spicy food eventually led him to Bangkok. City life, employment and spicy food have managed to keep him there since, working as a writer and photographer. He's contributed text and photos to more than 20 Lonely Planet titles including Bangkok, Food Lover's Guide to the World and the World's Best Street Food.

Nick Ray

Cambodia, Laos A Londoner of sorts, Nick harks from Watford, the sort of town that makes you want to travel. He studied history and politics at Warwick University before hitting the road for a life in travel and has worked on about 50 titles for Lonely Planet since his first foray in 1998. Based in Cambodia's Phnom Penh with his wife Kuliakar and two children, Julian and Belle, he covers countries in Southeast Asia, including Myanmar and Vietnam, with the occasional diversion to Africa.

Richard Waters

Laos Richard is an award-winning journalist and works for the Independent, Sunday Times and Telegraph. Laos is one of his favourite countries, his journeys there started in '99 as a traveller, then as a journalist taking him into the still forbidden Xaisomboun Zone investigating the Hmong guerrilla survivors of the Secret War. This will be his 12th Lonely Planet book on Laos. To read more of his travel journalism visit: www.richardwaters.co.uk.

China Williams

Thailand China has been writing about Thailand for Lonely Planet for more than a decade. She grew up in South Carolina, taught English in rural Thailand, learned the art of punctuation as an editor and commuted across oceans and continents to Southeast Asia. She now raises two children in Ellicott City, Maryland (USA), and tends a suburban woods filled with wildlife.
