AUTHOR THANKS

Anthony Ham

Sincere thanks to all of those who have made West Africa such a special place for me to visit throughout the years. Special thanks to Jan and Ron, and to my three girls Marina, Carlota and Valentina: Os quiero con todo mi corazón. My work on this book is dedicated to Azima Ag Mohamed Ali – I hope you can return home soon, my friend.

Jean-Bernard Carillet

A huge thanks to everyone who made this trip a pure joy, including Arno, Gautier, Dominique, Julien, Myriam and all the travellers I met while on the road. I'm also grateful to my fellow author Emilie for her tips, and to Anthony Ham, coordinating author extraordinaire. And finally, once again a gros bisou to Christine and Eva.

Paul Clammer

There are always too many friends in Morocco to acknowledge everyone, but a particular thanks this time to Kerstin Brand in Marrakesh, Robert Johnstone in Fez and Alia Radman for being a hostess for Eid. In Mauritania, big thanks to Melissa Nielson Andersson and Natsuko Sawaya. Cora at Bab Sahara, and to my driver in the Adrar, Jid Moma.

Emilie Filou

Thanks to all the travellers, tourism professionals and friends who chipped in with recommendations, shared a meal or a taxi-brousse ride and were part of the journey – there are simply too many to name here. And thank you to my husband Adolfo for putting up with this crazy life.

Nana Luckham

Thanks to Patrick Smith, Reuben Swift and Yaa Yeboah.

Tom Masters

A huge debt of thanks to Rosemary Masters, who came to Africa for the first time in her 60s and proved to be an amazing travelling companion. She never lost her sense of humour despite illness, bad weather and lots of long journeys. Enormous thanks also to Niall Cowley, whose company and high spirits in Cameroon were unforgettable, whether driving down the worst roads I've ever been on, befriending the mayor of Kumba, or surviving a night in a hotel in Wum without first eating fish from a plastic bag. Grids!

Anja Mutić

Obrigada, Hoji, for coming along for the ride and making it more fun. A huge thanks to Samira and her crowd in Mindelo, who made me fall in love with the city. Special thanks go to Cristiano and Larissa on Boa Vista, Kate on Santo Antão and Patti for being a great connector. Finally, to my always-laughing mum and the inspiring memory of my father.

Caroline Sieg

Thanks to everyone who took the time to share their tips with me and for the countless, friendly conversations at waterside bars across The Gambia and Senegal. And a very special merci to Gilles in Dakar for some sensational nights out on the town.

Kate Thomas

A big obrigada to everyone who helped out in the terra sabi (delicious land) of Guinea-Bissau, especially Matt Boslego, Holly Pickett (for her company on the tough road to Varela), Brian King, Ze Manel, Amelia 'Betty' Gomes, Aicha and Bassiro Djalo, the Mama Djombos and the extended Djalo-King clan. Thanks to Lassana Cassama, Gorka Gamarra and, on the island of Bolama, to Felipa and to Queba Dabo for such a warm welcome. In lovely Liberia, special thanks to Othello Garblah, Saad Karim (for his company and couch), Saki Golafale, taximan Alpha, Chawki Bsaibes and Jamal. In Sierra Leone, Fid Thompson's help was invaluable. Thank you Fid! Shout-outs also to Koumba Jalloh, Aminata Seye, Nelson Gbapor and Faty Serif. On the road in Côte d'Ivoire, thanks to Hortense and Franck, Amie 'Rainbow', David Diallo and Tessa, for fun had on our foodie tours of
