SEND US YOUR FEEDBACK

We love to hear from travelers – your comments keep us on our toes and help make our books better. Our well-traveled team reads every word on what you loved or loathed about this book. Although we cannot reply individually to postal submissions, we always guarantee that your feedback goes straight to the appropriate authors, in time for the next edition. Each person who sends us information is thanked in the next edition – the most useful submissions are rewarded with a selection of digital PDF chapters.

Visit lonelyplanet.com/contact to submit your updates and suggestions or to ask for help. Our award-winning website also features inspirational travel stories, news and discussions.

Note: We may edit, reproduce and incorporate your comments in Lonely Planet products such as guidebooks, websites and digital products, so let us know if you don't want your comments reproduced or your name acknowledged. For a copy of our privacy policy visit lonelyplanet.com/privacy.

OUR READERS

Many thanks to the travelers who used the last edition and wrote to us with helpful hints, useful advice and interesting anecdotes:

Shobhan Agarwal, Julio Balthazar, Neil Dunford, Angela McLean, Amanda Supple

AUTHOR THANKS

Bradley Mayhew

Thanks to the ever-professional Carolyn McCarthy for her assistance, and to my wife, Kelli, who has shared many hikes and trips with me across the Yellowstone region.

Carolyn McCarthy

Many thanks to those who helped support my trip and the writing process, especially co-author Bradley Mayhew. Kristen MacConnell,

Debbie and Kevan were stellar companions on the trail. Thanks once more to Drew for the canoe tour of Leigh Lake. My gratitude goes out to Jackie Skaggs, a parks service wonder, as well as Sue Muncaster and Christian Santelices. The Climbers' Ranch continues to be an incredible resource. For Tara Breed, who will always be in the mountains.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Bradley Mayhew

Yellowstone National Park, Around Yellowstone An expat Brit, Bradley currently calls Yellowstone County, Montana home and hikes the parks and nearby Bear-tooth Plateau every chance he gets. Half a lifetime of travel through Central Asia, Tibet and Mongolia has made him feel quite at home in Big Sky country. He was the coordinating author of the first three editions of this guide and is the coordinating author of many Lonely Planet guides, including Tibet, Bhutan, Nepal, Trekking in the Nepal Himalaya and Central Asia. See what he's currently up to at www.bradleymayhew.blogspot.com. Bradley also wrote the Plan section, and Clothing & Equipment and Directory A–Z chapters.

Carolyn McCarthy

Grand Teton National Park, Around Grand Teton When not roaming the Tetons with an eye out for grizzly scat, Carolyn can be found in Patagonia. She has contributed to more than 30 titles for Lonely Planet, including Trekking in the Patagonian Andes, Zion & Bryce Canyon National Parks, Chile, Argentina and Peru. She has written for National Geographic, Outside and Boston Globe, among other publications. She also teaches travel writing at Grub Street in Boston. Follow her adventures on Instagram @masmerquen and Twitter @roamingMcC. Carolyn also wrote the Understand section, and Transportation and Health & Safety chapters.
