

Hobart's Harbour & History

Catch Hobart's historic vibe with a walk from the city centre, through historic Battery Point and down to Salamanca Place on the waterfront.

Start Franklin Square

Distance 3km

Duration Three hours

1 Launch your expedition at Franklin Sq, named after Sir John Franklin, Van Diemen's Land's one-time lieutenant-governor.

5 Skirt around Constitution Dock and the broad Sullivans Cove waterfront to St David's Park, Hobart Town's original cemetery.

2 Trek down Macquarie St into the excellent Tasmanian Museum & Art Gallery, incorporating Hobart's oldest buildings.

3 Navigate Campbell and Davey Sts to Victoria Dock, built in 1804 and home to Hobart's fishing fleet.

4 Ogle the slick Henry Jones Art Hotel (www.thehenryjones.com; 25 Hunter St), formerly the IXL jam factory, once Tasmania's largest private employer.

7 Bumble down Kelly's Steps to the Salamanca Place warehouses. Bars, cafes, restaurants, galleries...take your pick!

Take a Break... Coffee and pies at Jackman & McRoss in Battery Point.

6 Arc uphill into atmospheric Battery Point, Hobart's oldest residential area. Check out the Hampden Rd cafes.
