

The Annex & University of Toronto

The gritty Annex neighbourhood is home to students from Canada's largest university, with its stately buildings.

Yorkville

The downtown home of Toronto's rich and famous. The Mink Mile is the place to go for high-end brand label shopping.

Kensington Market & Chinatown

A dragon gate marks Chinatown's epicenter while Kensington Market is multicultural Toronto at its most interesting.

Downtown Yonge

Dundas Sq is the center of downtown, with nearby Eaton Centre mall, some historic theaters and Ryerson University.

Financial District

Toronto's 'Wall Street' and the nicest of the skyscrapers are here, plus Union Station – Canada's busiest transport hub.

CN TOWER

Old Town

Historic district extending east of Yonge St to the Don River, and from Queen St south to the waterfront esplanade.

Waterfront

Packed with restaurants, theaters, galleries, stores, condominiums and parklands along Queens Quay.

Entertainment District

Where you come to catch a baseball or hockey game, see a musical or comedy show, and spend a night on the town.
