

A Northern Point of View

This walk takes in North London's most interesting locales, including celebrity-infested Primrose Hill and chaotic Camden Town, home to loud guitar bands and the last of London's cartoon punks.

Start Chalk Farm tube station

Distance 2.5 miles

Duration Two hours

Classic Photo: London's skyline from atop Primrose Hill

2 In Primrose Hill, walk to the top of the park where you'll find a classic view of central London's skyline.

4 At Camden Lock turn left into buzzing Lock Market, with its original fashion, ethnic art and food stalls.

5 Exit onto Camden High St and turn right onto bar-lined Inverness St, which hosts its own little market.

1 Affluent Regent's Park Rd is home to many darlings of the celebrity mags, so keep your eyes peeled for famous faces.

6 At Gloucester Cres turn left and walk past the glorious Georgian townhouses.

Take a Break... Enjoy excellent fresh fish and seaweed-salted chips at Hook Camden Town.

3 Walk downhill to Regent's Canal, where you'll pass the large aviary at London Zoo, quaint boats, superb mansions and converted industrial buildings.

7 Head towards Delancey St and make a beeline for the Edinboro Castle (www.edinborocastlepub.co.uk; 57 Mornington Tce, NW1; ☀ noon-11pm Mon-Sat, to 10.30pm Sun; 🚇 Camden Town), where this walk ends with a well-deserved drink!

