

Miami Take at least two days to explore Miami Beach, Little Havana and Miami's museums. 🚗 1½ hrs to the Everglades

The map shows the Florida Keys archipelago. A dashed red line with white dots indicates a travel route starting from Miami (marked with a red circle with the number 1), heading south through the Everglades (marked with a red circle with the number 2), then through Islamorada (marked with a red circle with the number 3), and finally ending at Key West (marked with a red circle with the number 4). The surrounding water is light blue, and the land is white with some brown outlines for the islands and the Everglades.

Everglades Get a taste of the national park by heading to the Royal Palm Visitor Center. 🚗 1½ hrs to Islamorada

Key West
You've made it to the end of the road! Have a drink, enjoy the sunset and relax.

Islamorada Paddle around and snack at local restaurants in this pretty corner of the Middle Keys. 🚗 2 hrs to Key West