

Walking Tour: A Northern Point of View

This walk takes in North London's most interesting locales, including celebrity-infested Primrose Hill and chaotic Camden Town, home to loud guitar bands and the last of London's cartoon punks.

Start 📍 Chalk Farm
Distance 2.5 miles
Duration Two hours

Classic photo: London's skyline from atop Primrose Hill

2 In Primrose Hill, walk to the top of the park, where you'll find a classic view of central London's skyline.

3 Walk downhill to Regent's Canal, where you'll pass the large aviary at London Zoo, quaint boats, superb mansions and converted industrial buildings.

1 Affluent Regent's Park Road is home to many darlings of the women's mags, so keep your eyes open for famous faces.

4 At Camden Lock turn left into buzzing Lock Market, with its original fashion, ethnic art and food stalls.

5 Exit onto Camden High Street and turn right onto bar-lined Inverness Street, which hosts its own little market.

Food collective KERB offers an A to Z of world cuisine.

7 Head towards Delancey St and make a beeline for the Edinboro Castle, where this walk ends with a well-deserved drink!
