Oslo Walking Tour

Once a heavily industrialised port area, Oslo’s waterfront has been totally transformed over the last 20 years and is still in the process of rapid change. It makes for a heady mix of the new and the historic, and the industrial and the natural.

Start Ekebergparken
Distance 4.5km
Duration 2.5 hours

---

1. Take a Break...
   - Try the airy terrace of historic Ekeberg Restaurant (Kongsveien 15; www.ekebergrestaurant.no) or the prime waterfront stools at Vingen at each end of the walk.

2. Heading down towards the city, fascinating Bjørvika, the former port, lies before you.

3. Walk on the luminous marble roof of Oslo’s most iconic building, the Oslo Opera House for stunning 360-degree views.

4. Akerhusstranda makes for a nice waterfront stroll, with the fortress looming above.

5. At charming Pipervika you can eat this morning’s catch straight from the boats.

6. The city’s most-visited stretch of waterfront gives way to the serene sails of Renzo Piano’s Astrup Fearnley Museet.

---

Frognersandta
Dronning Mauds gate
Strandgata
Pipervika
Vingen
Akerhus Festning
Akerhusstranda
Openigs gate
Bjørvika
Sørenga
Ekeberg Restaurant
Ekebergparken

---

Classic Photo: Out over Oslofjord from the roof of the Opera House.