

Walking Tour: Bürgenstock Felsenweg

This panoramic walk follows the Bürgenstock, a high limestone ridge above Lake Lucerne.

Start Bürgenstock

End Ennetbürgen

Distance 7.5km

Duration 2 to 2½ hours

0 0 1 mile 2 km

Classic Photo

Dramatic views of Lake Lucerne framed by rocky overhangs along the cliff-hugging trail.

4 Zigzag steeply down through forest and intermittent exposed rock faces to Mattgrat.

Lake Lucerne

5 Plunge back into forest, bearing left at a signposted fork and descending to the historic St Jost Kapelle.

6 Descend through pastureland and along the lightly forested lakeside to meet a sealed street at Ennetbürgen.

7 Continue straight past the ferry dock to Ennetbürgen's village centre.

Take a Break...

Gasthaus Obermatt (www.gasthaus-obermatt.ch) offers Swiss comfort food near the trail's end.

2 Continue east along the cliff face through a series of short tunnels blasted into vertical rock walls.

3 Follow the signposted Waldstätterweg along the wooded ridge to Chänzli.

1 From Kehrsiten-Bürgenstock ferry port, take the funicular up to Bürgenstock and walk east through Bürgenstock Hotels resort.