

Ueno & Yanaka

Classic Japanese restaurants, some in beautiful vintage buildings

Asakusa & Kuramae

Good old-school Japanese food and modest prices

Shinjuku

Great for izakaya and yakitori, but you can get everything here

Kōenji

Off-the-wall local spots and famously good value

Kanda & Akihabara

Historic restaurants and some creative standouts

(4km)

Kichijōji

Local favourites and a cafe scene

Marunouchi & Nihombashi

Traditional restaurants and fantastic teahouses

Harajuku

Fashionable cafes and restaurants and reasonable prices

Aoyama & Gaienmae

Destination dining

Ginza & Around

The place for lunch or tea; high-end dining at night

Shibuya

Trendy spots, especially on the fringes

Roppongi & Around

Spurge-worthy restaurants and lots of international cuisine

Daikanyama & Naka-Meguro

Cool scene, with great finds – if you can find them

Ebisu & Meguro

Cosmopolitan and hip, with good options at all price points

Tokyo Bay