

KRK

Whether you're after a family camping holiday or a luxurious hotel stay, Krk has you covered. Plus there's a historic walled town to explore and a good selection of watersports on offer.

VIS

Come to Vis for pretty swimming coves, a pair of historic towns, sea kayaking, diving and traditional Dalmatian food.

BRAČ

Active travellers will love Brač for its beaches, hiking tracks and the diversity of watersports on offer. The island also has a great range of accommodation, ranging from hostels to boutique hotels.

CRES

Sparsely populated Cres has a historic walled town, remote villages and lots of nature to lose yourself in. It's a great location for a camping holiday.

HVAR

Hvar offers a little of something for everyone, catering equally well to luxury travellers and backpackers, history buffs and beach bums, party freaks and nature kids.

RAB

A great place for young families, hikers, and geology, history and architecture enthusiasts.

KORČULA

Aside from the charms of walled Korčula Town, the island is blessed with beaches, wineries, family-run campsites and a terrific set of village eateries.

PAG

Pag has competing and varied claims to fame: its cheese, lamb, lace, salt pans and lunar landscape as well as its raucous beach clubs.

LASTOVO

What it lacks in beaches and infrastructure, Lastovo compensates for in off-the-beaten-track charm. This one's strictly for sailors, cyclists and hikers.

MLJET

Green and gorgeous, Mljet has Roman ruins, saltwater lakes, hiking and biking trails, and some wonderful swimming spots.
