Capitol History Stroll

One of the US’s quieter, more unusual state capitals, Juneau sits on a steep hill with a backdrop of steep, green-hued mountains.

Start Cruise Dock
Distance 1 mile
Duration 1 hour

1. Follow the historic artery of S Franklin St from the cruise dock into downtown Juneau.
2. Take a peek at the antique-heavy bar and reception area of the Alaskan Hotel, the oldest in Alaska.
3. Navigate toward the onion dome of the small, but old St Nicholas Russian Orthodox Church.
4. Head uphill to the Wickersham State Historical Site, a wooden mining-era museum to a bygone age.
5. Possibly Juneau’s most handsome building, the Governor’s Mansion mixes arts and crafts with neoclassical pillars.
6. There’s no dome, but a replica of the liberty bell can be found outside the diminutive Alaska State Capitol.
7. Fill in the remaining gaps of the city’s history at the Juneau-Douglas City Museum.
8. Investigate native masks and impressive Tsimshian carving at Sealaska Heritage, a new cultural center.

Order a foccacia sandwich downtown in the Rookery.
