

Historical Pioneer Square Circuit

Pioneer Square is Seattle's historic red-bricked quarter, the original downtown that was saved from the demolition ball by conservationists in the 1960s. This circular walk starts next to the transport hub of King Street.

Start King Street Station
Distance 1 mile
Duration 1 hour

Classic Photo

The decorative facade of the Pioneer Building with a totem pole in the foreground.

2 Admire urban beauty at Pioneer Square Park with its Eiffel-esque iron pergola and the Richardsonian Romanesque Pioneer Building.

4 Smith Tower was erected by LC Smith, a man who built his fortune on typewriters (Smith-Corona) and guns (Smith & Wesson).

6 Fill in your historical gaps at the intellectually stimulating Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park.

3 Yesler Way holds the dubious distinction of being the nation's original 'skid row.'

5 Surrounded by ivy-covered edifices, Occidental Park is an outdoor emporium of food carts and old-fashioned games.

1 Start at King Street Station, Seattle's main railway terminus, recently returned to its Gilded Age glory.

Take a Break...

Plug into the spirit of the times at Zeitgeist Coffee.