Gold Rush Skagway

All the most melodramatic elements of Alaska’s history are lurking in the false-fronted wooden edifices of Skagway. Close your eyes and you can almost see the gold.

Start Visitor Center
Distance 2 miles
Duration 2 hours

1. Receive a dramatic introduction to Skagway’s golden history at the national park visitor center.

2. Take a brothel tour and/or order pizza at the still bawdy Red Onion Saloon.

3. Admire the bizarre driftwood facade of the Arctic Brotherhood Hall.

4. Visit the humble abode of Skagway’s founding father in the Moore Homestead Museum.

5. Try to invoke the drunken days of yore in the Mascot Saloon Museum.

6. Get the story of Soapy Smith, Dead Horse Gulch and Tlingit basketry at Skagway Museum.

Beer and burgers at Skagway Brewing Company.
