

Art Deco Miami Beach

Explore the architectural and aesthetic backbone of South Beach on this stroll past the colorful buildings of Miami's Art Deco Historic District.

Start Art Deco Museum

Distance 1.2 miles

Duration Two to three hours

Classic Photo

The Post Office is a striking building with a round facade and a lighthouse-like cupola.

4 Step inside the US Post Office, at 13th St, to admire the wall mural, domed ceiling and marble stamp tables.

Take a Break

Lunch at the 11th Street Diner.

3 At 14th St peek inside the Winter Haven Hotel to see its fabulous terrazzo floors, made of stone chips set in polished mortar.

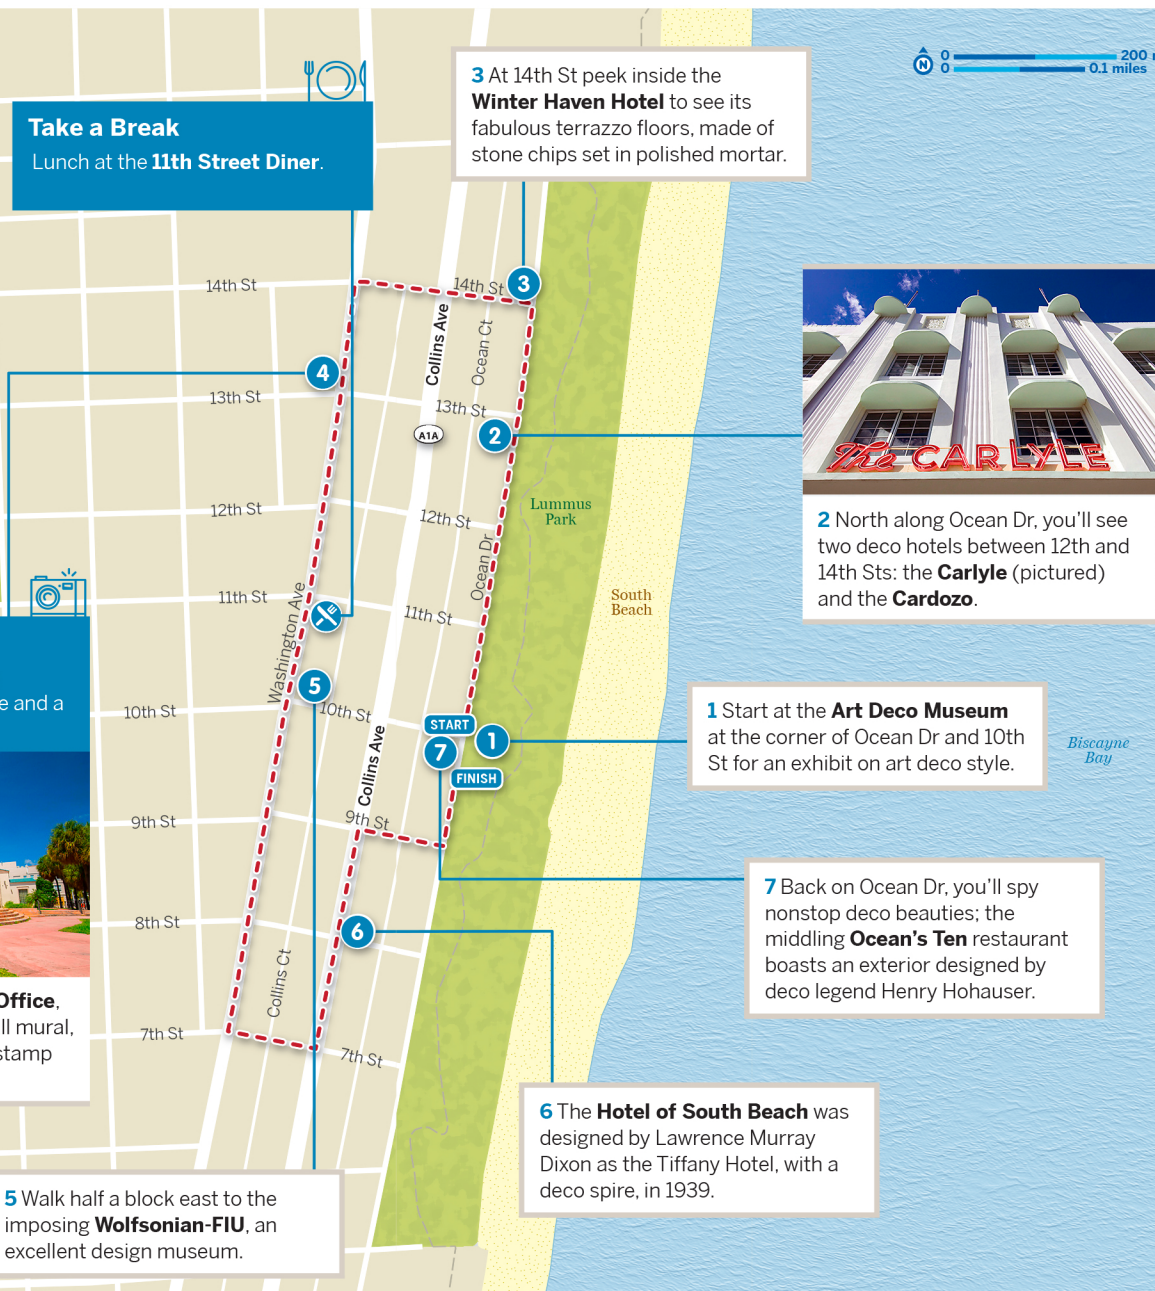

2 North along Ocean Dr, you'll see two deco hotels between 12th and 14th Sts: the Carlyle (pictured) and the Cardozo.

1 Start at the Art Deco Museum at the corner of Ocean Dr and 10th St for an exhibit on art deco style.

7 Back on Ocean Dr, you'll spy nonstop deco beauties; the middling Ocean's Ten restaurant boasts an exterior designed by deco legend Henry Hohauser.

6 The Hotel of South Beach was designed by Lawrence Murray Dixon as the Tiffany Hotel, with a deco spire, in 1939.

5 Walk half a block east to the imposing Wolfsonian-FIU, an excellent design museum.

Biscayne Bay