

Explore the Emperor's Palace

This atmospheric walk will take you right into the heart of Diocletian's Palace, where Roman monuments sit side-by-side with some of the city's coolest bars.

Start Grgur Ninski statue

Distance 500m

Duration One hour

7 Pass through to Narodni trg, which has been Split's main civic square since medieval times.

5 Take the stairs up into the well-preserved vestibule, a domed room, open to the sky, once the formal entrance to the emperor's personal quarters.

6 Snake through the maze of streets lined with medieval buildings housing some of Split's best bars to the high arches of the Iron Gate.

1 Begin outside Diocletian's Palace at the imposing statue of Grgur Ninski; rub his toe for good luck.

2 Take the stairs down to the grand Golden Gate, the main processional entrance into the palace.

Classic Photo Peristil

3 Walk along Dioklecijanova to the peristil, the ceremonial court at the approach to the imperial apartments.

4 Behind this is Diocletian's magnificent mausoleum, now the Cathedral of St Domnius.
