This image is a diagram of symbols used to represent various elements on maps. The symbols are categorized into Sights, Information, Activities, Courses & Tours, Population, Transport, Sleeping, Eating, Drinking & Nightlife, Entertainment, and Shopping. Each category includes specific symbols for different types of locations and activities.

Additional information at the bottom of the image states: "Note: Not all symbols displayed above appear on the maps in this book."