Southern California’s Beaches

SANTA BARBARA
Palm trees breezily wave over a dozen bewitching beaches, offering plenty of memorable opportunities for water sports or just lazing on the sand.

HUNTINGTON BEACH
In ‘Surf City, USA’ you can make real those SoCal beach scenes you’ve glimpsed in Hollywood movies: bronzed bods, beach volleyball in bikinis and pro surf competitions.

LAGUNA BEACH
Artier and more laid-back than its OC neighbors, Laguna Beach lets you get back to nature. Go scuba diving, sea kayaking or beachcombing along glittering white sands.

SAN DIEGO
This sun-kissed coastline is speckled with beaches for all kinds of folk, from families with young kids learning how to swim, to lifelong beach bums.
