

Delhi & Agra Neighbourhoods

New Delhi

Great for shopping, eating and drinking, and sprinkled with architectural reminders of the British Raj.

Sunder Nagar, Nizamuddin & Lodi Colony

A sweeping neighbourhood with some of the city's best parks and most alluring historical sites. Great markets, too.

South Delhi

Affluent, leafy, city-centre escape with trendy markets, historic parks and plenty of good restaurants.

Indira Gandhi International Airport

Greater Delhi & Gurgaon (Gurugram)

Vast neighbourhood including some standout archaeological ruins as well as the malls, food courts and sky-trains of modern Gurgaon.

Qutab Minar Complex

Mehrauli Archaeological Park

Red Fort

Jama Masjid

Rajpath

Purana Qila

Hazrat Nizam-ud-din Dargah

Humayun's Tomb

Akshardham Temple

Old Delhi

A mesmerising medley of mosques, markets, temples, bells, bazaars, incense, rickshaws, cows, hawkers, monkeys, alleyways, street food and honking horns.

Agra

The Taj Mahal, Agra Fort and Fatehpur Sikri make up Agra's golden trio of must-see Unesco-listed sights.

Agra (300km)