Shops fill Helsinki’s world-famous Design District, which centres on hip Punavuori.

Kamppi & Töölö
Kamppi is home to outstanding museums and cultural institutions; peaceful Töölö is lovely and leafy.

City Centre
Graced with National Romantic–style buildings, home to the city’s art museums and botanic gardens.

Kruununhaka & Katajanokka
This maritime neighbourhood is home to Helsinki’s main market square.

Kallio
Rapidly gentrifying to become one of Helsinki’s hottest areas, with whimsical public art.
