Heritage Park: KL's official Little India.

Lake Gardens & Brickfields: The city's green lungs are surrounded by top museums, while south is KL's official Little India.

Bukit Bintang & KLCC: Here KL shows off with gleaming skyscrapers and chic bars – it's the place to head for malls, street food, restaurants and clubs.

Chinatown & Merdeka Square: Historical architecture, from Moghul mosques to colonial mansions, and Chinese and Indian cuisine, make this KL's most popular tourist area.

Worth a Trip:
- Top Sights
  - Forestry Research Institute of Malaysia (FRIM)
  - Batu Caves
  - Thean Hou Temple

- Local Life
  - Pudu
  - Bangsar Baru

- Top Sights
  - Merdeka Square
  - Sri Mahamariamman Temple

- Top Sights
  - Kuala Lumpur

- Top Sights
  - Petronas Towers

- Top Sights
  - Sri Mahamariamman Temple

- Top Sights
  - Tun Abdul Razak Heritage Park

Top Sights
- Tun Abdul Razak Heritage Park
- Merdeka Square
- Sri Mahamariamman Temple
- Petronas Towers
- Kuala Lumpur
- Sri Mahamariamman Temple

Masjid India & Kampung Baru: These distinct ethnic neighborhoods attract with lively markets and a kampung (village) in the heart of the city.