Funky boutiques and handicraft stores sit side by side in this medina neighbourhood of narrow passageways and blush-pink walls.

A walled city within a walled city. Marrakesh’s grandest mansion architecture and a tomb almost worth dying for.

Marrakesh’s main square is where carnival and cultural hub collide. Atmospheric and a touch chaotic, this is the city’s heart.

Modern Marrakesh offers art galleries, top restaurants and shady parks to escape the hurly-burly of the medina.
