Milan Neighbourhoods

Porta Garibaldi & Isola
Porta Nuova’s shiny skyscrapers and buzzing Corso Garibaldi are showpieces for modern Milan. In their shadow up-and-coming Isola has a cool, multicultural vibe.

Brera & Parco Sempione
Brera’s cute shops, art galleries and boho raffishness contrast with the grandeur of Castello Sforzesco and the Triennale design museum.

Corso Magenta & Sant’Ambrogio
A warren of medieval streets surrounds the Basilica di Sant’Ambrogio, while Corso Magenta is lined by patrician palaces.

Navigli
The south of the city is bisected by canals and is where the hipster kids come to shop, drink and party.

Quadrilatero d’Oro & Giardini Pubblici
Milan’s luxury enclave contains cobbled streets filled with high-fashion theatre, flanked by a pretty pleasure garden.

Duomo & Around
Milan’s historic hub is dominated by the twin temples of the Duomo and the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II.

Porta Romana & Porta Vittoria
Miuccia Prada’s fabulous Fondazione Prada is pioneering the revitalisation of this quiet corner of the city.

Milan’s historic hub is dominated by the twin temples of the Duomo and the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II.