Definitively Sydney, Bondi is one of the world's great beaches: ocean and land collide and the Pacific arrives in great foaming swells. It's the closest ocean beach to the city centre (8km away), has consistently good (though crowded) waves, and is great for a rough-and-tumble swim (the average water temperature is a considerate 21°C). ydney Opera House with VIrgin Cycs is a sure way to send a tingle down your spine. Gloriously curvaceous and pointy, the Opera House perches dramatically at the tip of Bennelong Point, waiting for its close-up. No natter from which angle you point a canera at it, it shamelessly mugs for the lens; the Opera House really doesn't have a bad side.
