Top Itineraries

Day One

Vondelpark & the South (p149)

Begin with the biggies: tram to the Museum Quarter to ogle the masterpieces at the Van Gogh Museum (p154) and Rijksmuseum (p151). They'll be crowded, so make sure you've prebooked tickets. Modern-art buffs might want to swap the Stedelijk Museum (p156) for one of the others. They're all lined up in a walkable row.

Lunch Slow Food favourite Gartine (p73) grows ingredients in its garden.

Medieval Centre (p64)

Spend the afternoon in the Medieval Centre. Explore the secret courtyard and gardens at the Begijnhof (p67). Walk up the street to the Dam (p69), where the Royal Palace (p66), Nieuwe Kerk (p72) and Nationaal Monument (p269) huddle and provide a dose of Dutch history. Bend over to sip your jenever (Dutch gin) like a local at Wynand Fockink (p79).

Dinner Reinvented Dutch classics and cocktails at Lt Cornelis (p75).

Red Light District (p64)

Venture into the Red Light District. A walk down Warmoesstraat or nearby Oudezijds Achterburgwal takes in an eye-popping array of fetish-gear shops, live sex shows, smoky coffeeshops and, of course, women in day-glo lingerie beckoning from crimson windows. Then settle in to a brown cafe (traditional Dutch pub), such

Day Two

De Pijp (p173)

Browse the Albert Cuypmarkt (p176), Amsterdam's largest street bazaar, an international free-for-all of cheeses, fish, stroopwafels (syrup-filled waffles) and bargain-priced clothing. Then submit to the Heineken Experience (p175) to get shaken up, heated up and 'bottled' like the beer you'll drink at the end of the brewery tour.

Lunch Brunch is De Pijp's forte; Bakers & Roasters (p180) does it best (all day).

Southern Canal Ring (p116)

Cross into the Southern Canal Ring and stroll along the grand Golden Bend. Visit Museum Van Loon (p119) for a peek into the opulent canal-house lifestyle, or get a dose of kitty quirk at the Kattenkabinet (p120). Browse the Bloemenmarkt (p119) and behold the wild array of bulbs.

Dinner Organic dishes and canal views at Buffet van Odette (p123).

Southern Canal Ring (p116)

When the sun sets, it's time to par-tee at hyperactive, neon-lit Leidseplein (p118). Paradiso (p131) and Melkweg (p131) host the coolest agendas. Otherwise, the good-time clubs and brown cafes, around the square beckon. Try beery Café de Spuyt (p130) or historic Eijlders (p127). For serious 24-hour clubbing, head out of the centre to venues like Warehouse Elementenstraat (p53).

Day Three

Vondelpark & the South (p149)

 Take a spin around beloved Vondelpark (p157). Long and narrow (about 1.5km long and 300m wide), it's easy to explore via a morning jaunt. All the better if you have a bicycle to zip by the ponds, gardens and sculptures.

Lunch Enjoy timeless Dutch favourites at Bistro Bij Ons (p110).

Western Canal Ring (p102)

 Immerse yourself in the Negen Straatjes (p113) (Nine Streets), a noughts-and-crosses board of speciality shops. The Anne Frank Huis (p104) is also in the neighbourhood, and it's a must. The claustrophobic rooms, their windows still covered with blackout screens, give an all-too-real feel for Anne's life in hiding. Seeing the diary itself – filled with her sunny writing tempered with quiet despair – is moving, plain and simple.

Dinner Canal views and exceptional modern cuisine at De Belhamel (p110).

Jordaan (p134)

 Spend the evening in the Jordaan, the chummy district embodying the Amsterdam of yore. Hoist a glass on a canal-side terrace at 't Smalle (p143), join the houseboat party at Café P 96 (p143), or quaff beers at heaps of other gezellig (cosy) haunts.

Day Four

Nieuwmarkt, Plantage & the Eastern Islands (p85)

 Mosey through Waterlooplein Flea Market (p100) in Nieuwmarkt. Rembrandt sure loved markets, if his nearby studio is any indication. Museum het Rembrandthuis (p87) gives a peek at the master's inner sanctum. Neighbouring Gassan Diamonds (p89) gives free tours. Or check out the intriguing Verzetsmuseum (p91), the Resistance Museum, or sea treasures at Het Scheepvaartmuseum (p92).

Lunch Try a hot-spiced Surinamese sandwich at Tokoman (p93).

Amsterdam Noord (p194)

 Hop on a free ferry to Noord, one of the city's coolest, most up-and-coming neighbourhoods. Check out the cinematic exhibits at the EYE Film Institute (p196) and the artists' studios in the sprawling Kunststad (Art City; p196) centre at former shipyards NDSM-werf (p196).

Dinner Views peak at Moon (p197), the restaurant atop A'DAM Tower.

Ascend A'DAM Tower (p196) for dazzling views across the IJ to the city centre.

Oosterpark & East of the Amstel (p185)

 There are some fantastic nightlife venues in Noord; alternatively, back on the city side of the IJ, an evening spent on the terrace at De Ysbreeker (p191), looking out over the bustling,

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Catherine Le Nevez

Catherine's wanderlust kicked in when she roadtripped across Europe from her Parisian base aged four, and she's been hitting the road at every opportunity since, travelling to around 60 countries and completing her Doctorate of Creative Arts in Writing, Masters in Professional Writing, and postgrad qualifications in Editing and Publishing along the way. Over the past dozen-plus years she's written scores of Lonely Planet guides and articles covering Paris, France, Europe and far beyond. Her work has also appeared in numerous online and print publications. Topping Catherine's list of travel tips is to travel without any expectations.

Abigail Blasi

A freelance travel writer, Abigail has lived and worked in London, Rome, Hong Kong, and Copenhagen. Lonely Planet have sent her to India, Egypt, Tunisia, Mauritania, Mali, Italy, Portugal, Malta and around Britain. She writes regularly for newspapers and magazines, such as the Independent, The Telegraph, and Lonely Planet Traveller. She has three children and they often come along for the ride.
