Top Itineraries

Day One

Vondelpark & the South (p151)

 Begin with the biggies: tram to the Museum Quarter to ogle the masterpieces at the Van Gogh Museum and Rijksmuseum. They'll be crowded, so make sure you've prebooked tickets. Modern-art buffs might want to swap the Stedelijk Museum for one of the others. They're all lined up in a walkable row.

Lunch Slow food Gartine (p74) grows many ingredients in its garden.

Medieval Centre (p64)

 Spend the afternoon in the Medieval Centre. Explore the secret courtyard and gardens at the Begijnhof. Walk up the street to the Dam, where the Royal Palace, Nieuwe Kerk and Nationaal Monument huddle and provide a dose of Dutch history. Bend over to sip your jenever (Dutch gin) like a local at Wynand Fockink.

Dinner Cutting-edge Indonesian food at Ron Gastrobar Downtown (p75).

Red Light District (p64)

 Venture into the Red Light District. A walk down Warmoesstraat or nearby Oudezijds Achterburgwal takes in an eye-popping array of fetish-gear shops, live sex shows, smoky coffeeshops and, of course, women in day-glo lingerie beckoning from crimson windows. Then settle in to a brown cafe (traditional Dutch pub), such as In 't Aepjen.

Day Two

De Pijp (p175)

 Browse the Albert Cuypmarkt, Amsterdam's largest street bazaar, where stalls are piled high with cheeses, fish, stroopwafels (syrup-filled waffles) and bargain-priced clothing. Then submit to the Heineken Experience to get shaken up, heated up and 'bottled' like the beer you'll drink at the end of the brewery tour.

Lunch Bakers & Roasters (p184) does brunch best (and all day).

Southern Canal Ring (p118)

 Cross into the Southern Canal Ring and stroll along the grand Golden Bend. Visit Museum Van Loon for a peek into the opulent canal-house lifestyle, or get a dose of kitty quirk at the Kattenkabinet. Browse the Bloemenmarkt and behold the wild array of bulbs.

Dinner Organic dishes and canal views at Buffet van Odette (p125).

Southern Canal Ring (p118)

 When the sun sets, it's time to partee at hyperactive, neon-lit Leidseplein. Paradiso and Melkweg host the coolest agendas. Otherwise, the good-time clubs and brown cafes around the square beckon. Try beery Café de Spuyt or historic Eijlders. For serious all-hours clubbing, head out of the centre to venues like Warehouse Elementenstraat.

Het Scheepvaartmuseum (p94)

Heineken Experience (p177)

Day Three

Vondelpark & the South (p151)

Take a spin around Amsterdam's beloved Vondelpark. Elongated and narrow (about 1.5km long and 300m wide), it's easy to explore via a morning jaunt. All the better if you have a bicycle to zip by the ponds, gardens and sculptures.

Lunch Head to Bistro Bij Ons (p110) for timeless Dutch favourites.

Western Canal Ring (p104)

Immerse yourself in the Negen Straatjes, a noughts-and-crosses board of speciality shops. The Anne Frank Huis is also in the neighbourhood, and it's a must. The claustrophobic rooms, their windows still covered with blackout screens, give an all-too-real feel for Anne's life in hiding. Seeing the diary itself – filled with her sunny writing tempered with quiet despair – is moving, plain and simple.

Jordaan (p136)

Spend the evening in the Jordaan, the chummy district embodying the Amsterdam of yore. Hoist a glass on a canal-side terrace at 't Smalle, join the houseboat party at Café P 96, or quaff beers at heaps of other gezellig (cosy) haunts.

Day Four

Nieuwmarkt, Plantage & the Eastern Islands (p87)

Mosey through Waterlooplein Flea Market in Nieuwmarkt. Rembrandt sure loved markets, if his nearby studio is any indication. Museum het Rembrandthuis gives a peek at the master's inner sanctum. Neighbouring Gassan Diamonds gives free tours. Or check out the intriguing Verzetsmuseum, the Resistance Museum, or sea treasures at Het Scheepvaartmuseum.

Lunch Try a hot-spiced Surinamese sandwich at Tokoman (p95).

Amsterdam Noord (p198)

Hop on a free ferry to Noord, one of the city's coolest, most up-and-coming neighbourhoods. Check out the cinematic exhibits at the EYE Film Institute and the artists' studios in the sprawling Kunststad centre at former shipyards NDSM-werf. Ascend A'DAM Tower for dazzling views across the IJ River to the city centre.

Oosterpark & East of the Amstel (p189)

There are some fantastic nightlife venues in Noord; alternatively, back on the city side of the IJ, an evening spent on the terrace at De Ysbreeker, looking

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Catherine Le Nevez

De Pijp; Jordaan & the West; Medieval Centre & Red Light District; Western Canal Ring; Day Trips Catherine's wanderlust kicked in when she road-tripped across Europe from her Parisian base aged four, and she's been hitting the road at every opportunity since, travelling to some 60 countries and completing her Doctorate of Creative Arts in Writing, Masters in Professional Writing, and postgrad qualifications in Editing and Publishing along the way. Over the past decade-and-a-half she's written scores of Lonely Planet guides and articles covering Paris, France, Europe and far beyond. Her work has also appeared in numerous online and print publications. Topping Catherine's list of travel tips is to travel without any expectations. Catherine also wrote the Plan Your Trip, Understand and Survival sections.

Kate Morgan

Amsterdam Noord; Nieuwmarkt, Plantage & the Eastern Islands; Oosterpark & East of the Amstel; Vondelpark & the South Having worked for Lonely Planet for over a decade now, Kate has been fortunate enough to cover plenty of ground working as a travel writer on destinations such as Shanghai, Japan, India, Russia, Zimbabwe, the Philippines and Phuket. She has done stints living in London, Paris and Osaka but these days is based in one of her favourite regions in the world – Victoria, Australia. In between travelling the world and writing about it, Kate enjoys spending time at home working as a freelance editor.

Barbara Woolsey

Southern Canal Ring Barbara was born and raised on the Canadian prairies to a Filipino mother and Irish-Scottish father – and that third culture kid upbringing has fuelled a life's passion for cross-cultural storytelling. Barbara's career started in Bangkok working for Thailand's largest English-language newspaper, then travelling around Asia as a TV host for a Bangkok-based channel. Since then, she's voyaged across over 40 countries and five continents by plane, train and motorbike. In addition to writing for Lonely Planet, Barbara writes for newspapers, magazines and websites with readerships around the world. She spends most of her time in her adopted home of Berlin, Germany.
