

Northeastern Germany Trips

DRIVE INTO THE SPIRITUAL HEART OF GERMANY on these trips, which are found in the regions in and around the compelling capital of Berlin. There's plenty of natural beauty; the shores of the Baltic Sea feature endless beaches and beautiful surf; inland, pristine lakes abound amid ancient beech forests.

But it's the proud and ancient cities that really stand out. Dresden is a baroque wonderland of storied buildings and churches. Beguiling, strollable Lübeck was the capital of the Hanseatic League, which once made this region one of the world's richest and most civilised. And the riches weren't limited to the coasts – wealthy potentates built lavishly from the Harz Mountains all the way to the sea.

On these drives, you'll discover hulking castles, opulent palaces and magnificent gardens, along with excellent German food and drink.

Dresden The Fürstenzug (Procession of the Princes) and the Frauenkirche (Church of Our Lady) in the background (Trip 4).

L. TOSHIO KISHIYAMA / GETTY IMAGES ©