Dublin & Eastern Ireland

A SPIDER'S WEB OF ROADS – from motorways to tiny rural routes – lead you from Dublin's city centre to myriad delights.

Within an hour's drive from Dublin you can find yourself on a lonely mountain pass with only the odd sheep for company, or be transported back 3500 years in time to explore a passage grave built before the pyramids were a twinkle in a pharaoh's eye.

You're now in the heartland of Ireland's Ancient East, Failte Ireland's newest 'umbrella destination'. Our collection of itineraries that explore historic towns, castles, gardens and monastic monuments, which all serve to remind you of Ireland's breathtaking cultural heritage.
