WRITER THANKS

Damian Harper

Many thanks to Ann Harper, Jasmin Tonge, Kevin and Maki Fallows, Rosemary Hadow, Lily Greensmith, Antonia Mavromatidou, Arabella Sneddon, Bill Moran, Jim Peake, my ever-helpful co-authors, and a big debt of gratitude again to Daisy, Tim and Emma.

Peter Dragicevich

Researching in London is always a joy, due in large part to the company of a great bunch of friends and London-based Lonely Planet writers and editors. Particular thanks go to Kurt Crommelin, Rob Carpenter, Tim Benzie, Paul Joseph, Marcus O'Donnell, Suzannah and Oliver de Montfort, Damian Harper, Emilie Filou, Steve Fallon, Tasmin Waby, Brana Vladislavjevic, Anna Tyler and James Smart for your company and encouragement.

Steve Fallon

Many thanks to fellow authors Emilie Filou, Damian Harper and Peter Dragicevich for their advice and suggestions along the way. Fellow Blue Badge Tourist Guides – too many to name – were also of great help, especially Lia Lalli. As always, I'd like to state my admiration, gratitude and great love for my partner, Michael Rothschild, especially in this year when wedding bells will peal.

Emilie Filou

Big thanks to my friends Catherine, Philippe, Kathleen and Nikki who came along during research and made it so enjoyable. Thanks also to my co-writers Steve, Damian and Peter for all the destination sharing. And finally, thank you to my wonderful husband, Adolfo, for joining me when possible, and our one-and-only Miss Dynamite, aka Sasha, for reminding me that life is all about simple pleasures.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Damian Harper

Notting Hill & West London, Richmond, Kew & Hampton Court, Greenwich & South London, Kensington & Hyde Park, Survival Guide Born off the Strand within earshot of Bow Bells (favourable wind permitting), Damian grew up in Notting Hill way before it was discovered by Hollywood. A onetime Shakespeare and Company bookseller and radio presenter, Damian has been authoring guidebooks for Lonely Planet since the 1990s, and is a member of the British Guild of Travel Writers. He lives in South London with his wife and two kids, frequently returning to China (his second home). You can find out more at www.damianharper.com.

Peter Dragicevich

The City, East London, Survival Guide, Plan Your Trip After a successful career in niche newspaper and magazine publishing, both in his native New Zealand and in Australia, Peter finally gave into Kiwi wanderlust, giving up staff jobs to chase his diverse roots around much of Europe. Over the last decade he's written literally dozens of guidebooks for Lonely Planet on an oddly disparate collection of countries, all of which he's come to love. He once again calls

Auckland, New Zealand his home – although his current nomadic existence means he's often elsewhere.

Steve Fallon

The West End, Plan Your Trip & Understand After 15 full years living in the centre of the known universe – East London – Steve cockney-rhymes in his sleep, eats jellied eel for brekkie, drinks lager by the bucketful and dances round the occasional handbag. As always, for this edition of London he did everything the hard/fun way: walking the walks, seeing the sights, taking (some) advice from friends, colleagues and the odd taxi driver and digesting everything in sight. Steve is a qualified London Blue Badge Tourist Guide (www.steveslondon.com).

Emilie Filou

The South Bank, Clerkenwell, Shoreditch & Spitalfields, Hampstead & North London, Day Trips & Plan Your Trip Emilie Filou is a freelance journalist specialising in business and development issues, with a particular interest in Africa. Born in France, Emilie is now based in London, UK, from where she makes regular trips to Africa. Her work has appeared in publications such as The Economist, The Guardian, the BBC, the Africa Report and the Christian Science Monitor. She has contributed to some 20 Lonely Planet guides including France, Provence, London, West Africa, Madagascar and Tunisia. You can find out more on www.emiliefilou.com
